

Sat Sharma asks BJP cadre to intensify campaign for Devyani Rana in Nagrota

HIMALAYAN MAIL NEWS
JAMMU, NOV 03

Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) Jammu & Kashmir President and Member of Parliament (Rajya Sabha) Sat Sharma (CA), accompanied by senior party leaders, conducted a series of organizational meetings in various areas of the Nagrota Assembly Constituency, including one held at Panchayat Patta Rakh.

The meetings were part of BJP's ongoing campaign to mobilize grassroots workers and strengthen booth-level coordination for the upcoming Nagrota by-election.

Prominent leaders including District Prabhari Ayodhya Gupta, Sunil Sharma Raka, Surinder Singh Gilli, Kuldeep Singh Chib, President Chib Biradari, Sarpanch Dalbir Singh, Madan Singh Chib, K.L. Sharma (Sarpanch), Rajat Sudan, Nazir Ahmad (Ex-BDC), and Kashmir Singh (Retired Subedar) were among those who accompanied the party president. Addressing the enthusiastic gathering of party workers, Sat Sharma called upon the cadre to intensify the door-to-door campaign in support of BJP candidate Devyani Rana, ensuring that the party's message of development and good governance reaches every household in the constituency. He said that every vote for the BJP is a vote for progress, stability, and a brighter future for Jammu and Kashmir.

Sharma emphasized that the BJP stands for development, not division, and the Modi Government has worked tirelessly for the welfare of all sections of society without any regional, religious, or community-based bias. Be it urban, rural, or remote areas, every segment has witnessed visible change under the visionary leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Sat Sharma asserted.

Highlighting the inclusive nature of the party's governance model, he said that the BJP truly represents 'Unity in Diversity' and embodies the spirit of 'Sabka Sath, Sabka Vikas, Sabka Vishwas, and Sabka Prayas'. He urged the workers to uphold these principles while reaching out to the people with BJP's development-centric message.

Sat Sharma further stated that the people of Nagrota have immense faith in the BJP's commitment to transparent governance and equitable growth. He expressed confidence that with the collective efforts of party workers and the growing public support, BJP candidate Devyani Rana will secure a decisive victory in the forthcoming by-election.

LG Kavinder meets NDDB Delegation in Delhi

NEW DELHI, NOVEMBER 3: The Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor of Ladakh, Shri Kavinder Gupta, emphasised that the dairy and allied sectors play a pivotal role in building self-reliant and resilient communities across Ladakh by creating sustainable livelihood opportunities, empowering rural households, and reducing dependence on external markets.

He said this while interacting with a delegation of the National Dairy Development Board (NDDB) led by its Chairman, Dr. Meenesh Shah, in New Delhi today.

The Lt Governor noted that focused interventions in animal husbandry, milk processing, and cold-chain logistics would enhance farmers' incomes and contribute to realizing the vision of a Viksit and At-manirbhar Ladakh, aligned with the national goal of inclusive and sustainable rural development. Earlier, Dr. Meenesh Shah gave a detailed presentation on NDDB's ongoing and proposed initiatives aimed at empowering local dairy farmers and strengthening the dairy ecosystem in Ladakh through greater community participation. He sought administrative support for key projects, including funding for a new 50 TLPD dairy plant in Leh, solar-powered expansion of the Kargil dairy plant, and expedited approval for NDDB's plans to enhance milk productivity and procurement across the region.

Dr. Shah also underlined the need for farmer mobilization in Leh and Kargil districts and suggested addressing high air transport costs for perishables such as apricots during winter by exploring viable logistics solutions or subsidy mechanisms to ensure economic sustainability for local producers.

The Lt Governor reaffirmed the Administration's commitment to work closely with NDDB and local stakeholders to ensure long-term sustainability, improved farmer incomes, and inclusive rural development. He assured full support from the Administration to translate NDDB's initiatives into tangible benefits for the people of Ladakh, advancing the shared vision of Atmanirbhar Bharat and Viksit Ladakh.

Dr. Meenesh Shah, Chairman NDDB; S Regupathi, Executive Director, NDDB; JT Chary, Deputy MD, Mother Dairy; Manoj Solanki, MD, Ladakh Milk Federation; Sandeep Dheeman, Senior Manager, NDDB and Nikit Bansal, Manager, NDDB were present in the meeting.

One-Day sensitization workshop on PCPNDT Act held at Samba

JAMMU, NOV 03

A one-day sensitization workshop on the Pre-Conception and Pre-Natal Diagnostic Techniques (PCPNDT) Act was organized today under the Chairmanship of Additional Deputy Commissioner (ADC) Jagdish Singh in the presence of Chief Medical Officer (CMO) Dr. Vidhi Bhatia; Assistant Director DHS Jammu, Dr. Summi Thakur; Law Officer, Shivali Gupta; Block Medical Officers (BMOs), Nodal Officers and public and private sonologists, gynecologists, pediatricians, proprietors and NGO representatives.

The workshop aimed to enhance awareness and understanding among medical practitioners, health officials and other stakeholders regarding the provisions, rules and regulations of the PCPNDT Act. The Act seeks to prevent the misuse of prenatal diagnostic techniques and curb the practice of sex selection, thereby promoting gender equality and protecting the rights of the girl child.

Addressing the participants, ADC Jagdish Singh emphasized the importance of strict implementation of the PCPNDT Act and called upon all stakeholders to work collectively towards eradicating gender-based discrimination. He highlighted that effective monitoring and compliance at every level are crucial to uphold the spirit of the Act.

CMO Dr. Vidhi Bhatia elaborated the key objectives of the Act, including the regulation of diagnostic techniques, ensuring accountability of registered medical practitioners and promoting awareness about gender-sensitive practices in healthcare. She urged the medical fraternity to maintain transparency in record-keeping and adhere to the legal provisions to prevent any violations.

Dr. Summi Thakur presented a PowerPoint presentation on the importance of this act, while Shivali Gupta conducted detailed sessions on the legal framework, reporting procedures and responsibilities of clinics and ultrasound centers under the PCPNDT Act.

The workshop also featured interactive session and case-based learning to help participants understand the practical aspects of its implementation.

The workshop concluded with a collective pledge to strengthen coordination between the health department and enforcement agencies to ensure the effective implementation of the PCPNDT Act in the district and to uphold the objective of safeguarding the girl child

Vigilance Awareness Programme held at TSO Office Ramgarh

SAMBA, NOVEMBER 03: As part of the ongoing Vigilance Awareness Week-2025, a programme was organized today at the Tehsil Supply Office (TSO), Ramgarh under the supervision of the Assistant Director, Food, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs and overall guidance of the Deputy Commissioner Samba.

The event commenced with the integrity pledge, wherein the officials, staff members and Fair Price Shop (FPS) dealers reaffirmed their commitment to uphold the principles of transparency, accountability and ethical conduct in public service. The pledge ceremony reflected the collective resolve of the department to strengthen integrity mechanisms and ensure corruption-free service delivery.

The participants were sensitized about the importance of maintaining the highest standards of honesty while performing professional duty.

FPS dealers and beneficiaries were reminded of their pivotal role in promoting transparency in the Public Distribution System (PDS) by ensuring that ration is lifted and distributed strictly as per entitlement. Beneficiaries were urged to promptly report any irregularities, overcharging or malpractice observed in the ration distribution process.

The programme concluded with a collective affirmation to uphold this year's theme — “Vigilance: Our Shared Responsibility” — highlighting that integrity and vigilance are not merely administrative duties but shared moral obligations of every citizen and stakeholder.

The event was attended by departmental officials, FPS dealers and local beneficiaries, who appreciated the initiative and expressed their commitment to support a transparent and corruption-free system.
