full-sleeved shirt and skirt featuring a gathered knot detailing in the front and styled it using a brown belt, diamond studs and transparent heeled sandals. Her look was completed with a half-tied hairdo and subtle makeup. In the video, Raveena also displayed her statement faux leather bag to the paparazzi.

Just a day ago, Raveena took to her Instagram account to share a post featuring some moments from the event titled We Women Want Festival & Awards 2024. She was awarded the We Women Want Shakti Award 2024 in recognition of her excellence in Bravery. Nitin Gadkari, Union Cabinet Minister of Road Transport and Highways of India, presented it to her. The actress graced the event in a mustard yellow embellished saree paired with a matching full-sleeved jacket. She shared the glimpses from the event with the caption, "#shaktiawards #delhi #newsx. Thank you for the honour. @newsxofficial. #braveryaward #nitingadkari ji."

Not long ago, the 49-year-old actress posted a set of pictures featuring yet another of her stylish looks. In the photos, she was wearing an off-shoulder white dress featuring a plunging neckline. She opted for a silver statement belt to style her outfit. A sleek bun, subtle makeup and minimal accessories added stars to her look for an awards ceremony.

The '90s diva made her OTT debut with the 2021 Netflix crime thriller web series Aranyak. She received immense praise for her role. After which, the 49-year-old actress was seen in Karma Calling, Patna Shukla and Ghudchadi. According to a report by Hindustan Times, Raveena will be seen next in a political drama. "The web series is titled Dynasty. While Raveena plays the protagonist in the show, veteran singer-actor Talat Aziz will also play a key character," revealed a source close to the development of the project. On the other hand, she has also been roped in for Welcome to the Jungle.

Raveena Tandon is undoubtedly one of the finest actresses in Bollywood. She ruled the Hindi film industry during the '90s. At 49, the gorgeous actress possesses the ability to give the younger generation a run for their money with her never-ageing looks and impeccable style statements. Recently, Raveena was seen at a high-end restaurant in Mumbai, once again captivating everyone with her stunning appearance.

In a video shared by a paparazzo page on Instagram, the celebrated actress was seen posing for the photographers in a stylish outfit. She wore a satin Natasa Stankovic is back to her normal routine in Mumbai. The model and actress often get spotted in town while stepping out of a gym or after a casual day out with friends and families. On Tuesday, fans got another glimpse of the actress as she was clicked by the shutterbugs stationed at the spot. In the video, Natasa Stankovic is seen exiting a building and making way towards her car. Wearing a white Tee and wide-leg jeans, she exuded comfort and sophistication during her casual day out.

Adding definition to her look were a brown belt, sling bag and black slippers. Smiling at the shutterbugs, posing for them before boarding her car, Natasa surely made our day.

Lately, Natasa Stankovic has been in the spotlight for her appearance in a viral Punjabi music video. She also teamed up with Bigg Boss OTT 2 winner Elvish Yadav to promote the same, with their video garnering over 3 crore views in less than 24 hours. In the video, the duo shares some romantic on-screen chemistry as they take a stroll on the beach, looking lovingly into each other's eyes. Natasa looks stunning in the video in a floral white dress, while Elvish sports a trendy silver jumper, exuding style. As the clip spread like wildfire, people started trolling Natasa for collaborating with Elvish, who keeps hogging the limelight for his controversies.

Natasa Stankovic's music video Tere Krke alongside singer Preet Inder marked her first project after her separation from Hardik Pandya. The song, released on October 8, has fans showering love on Natasa for her comeback to the screen. In an announcement post about the song, she had shared a poster with the caption reading, "Get ready to groove to the beat of #TereKrke"

Natasa Stankovic and Hardik Pandya announced their separation following months of speculation and scrutiny earlier this year. In a post on Instagram, the duo shared that they "have decided to mutually part ways," while also revealing that they couldn't make their relationship work despite several efforts, eventually deciding to call it quits. However, they would continue to co-parent their son Agastya. The duo married each other in May 2020.

BLACKPINK's Pink Venom Creates New Record With 900 Million Views On YouTube

BLACKPINK has hit yet another significant milestone with their music video for Pink Venom. As of October 14, at approximately 11:27 pm, the video for Pink Venom, which was a pre-release track from their second studio album Born Pink (released in 2022), crossed 900 million views on YouTube. This makes it the eighth group music video by BLACKPINK to surpass this view count, following hits like DDU-DU DDU-DU, Kill This Love, BOOMBAYAH, As If It's Your Last, How You Like That, Ice Cream, and WHISTLE.

According to The Korea Times, the group had set a world record for female artists when the video gained 90.4 million views in just the first 24 hours after its release. BLACKPINK also became the fastest K-pop girl group to surpass 100 million views, accomplishing this feat in just 29 hours and 35 minutes after its release. In less than eight days, the video surpassed 200 million views.

The song also reached No. 22 on both the US Billboard Hot 100 and the UK Official Singles Chart Top 100.

In terms of YouTube presence, BLACKPINK holds the title for having the most subscribers among pop artists globally, with over 94.9 million. They have 47 videos that have amassed more than 100 million views.

Pink Venom is a hip-hop song that features the distinctive sound of the geomungo, a traditional Korean instrument. The track debuted at No 22 on both the Billboard Hot 100 and the UK Official Top Songs Chart.

Upon its release, it also became the first K-pop song to top Spotify's Weekly Top Songs Chart. At last year's MTV Video Music Awards, BLACKPINK received the Best Choreography award, making them the first Asian girl group to do so. They were also named Group of the Year at the same event, reports The Korea Times.

The music video for Pink Venom originally dropped on August 19, 2022, at 9:30 am, meaning it took two years, one month, and 25 days to reach this impressive milestone.

Oviya Filed A Complaint With The Commissioner Against 'Morphed Video', Says Manager: 'It's A Sensitive Issue'

An alleged private video of actress Oviya, known for Kalavani and Bigg Boss Tamil Season 1, was making the rounds of social media. The notorious incident has been the talk of all leading social media platforms with many rumours afloat. Actress Oviya, on the other hand, hasn't made an official statement regarding the ongoing controversy. However, she replied to many users who harassed her in the comments section of her Instagram posts. Many lauded her for handling the issues with sarcasm, while others questioned why she is not denying the claims.

Meanwhile, News18 got in touch with Oviya's manager, who claimed that the actress has filed a complaint with the Chennai police commissioner and will be taking necessary action against the culprit. "It is a morphed video made by someone who wanted to tarnish the name of Oviya. She has taken the matter to the police commissioner and will take necessary legal action against the culprit," he said. When asked about the details of the accused, Oviya's manager said, "It is a sensitive issue. So, I can't reveal such details." When trying to reach Oviya, the manager claimed that she is currently unwell and cannot be contacted.

Actress Oviya made her acting debut with the Malayalam film Kangaroo. She later became famous with the Tamil film Kalavani, which had actor Vemal in the lead role. The film became a blockbuster and Oviya was roped in for notable projects like Marina and Kalakalappu. She became immensely popular for her stint at Bigg Boss Tamil Season 1, where she was harassed by other teammates. Her statements like "Neenga Shut up Pannunga" in the house became part of Tamil pop culture. It also made Tamil merchandising like t-shirts. She had to exit the show as she tried to self-harm herself inside the house.

When it comes to turning up the heat, Shama Sikander knows exactly how to do it. In one striking image, she flaunted her curves in a leopard-printed monokini, looking incredibly hot and effortlessly stylish. (Image: shamasikander/Instagram)
