

Ayesha Khan Proves Less Is More With Her Latest Red Carpet Fit

Ayesha Khan made a striking appearance at the event, confidently posing for the paparazzi. She opted for a relaxed yet trendy Gen Z-inspired outfit, pairing a muted grey long-sleeved mock-neck top with high-rise, wide-leg cargo pants. Her look was completed with a small black cross-body bag and dark open-toed heeled sandals, striking a balance between edgy and elegant.

Ayesha Khan's energetic presence and evolving fashion choices have been grabbing attention across public appearances. She was recently spotted at singer Jasmine Sandlas' Delhi concert, where she went beyond being a spectator.

The actor later joined Jasmine Sandlas on stage during the performance of Shararat, earning cheers from the audience.

Ayesha Khan's Rising Popularity in Music and Films

Ayesha Khan has also been widely appreciated for her performance in the song Shararat from Dhurandhar. Sharing screen space with Krystle D'Souza, Ayesha brought infectious energy and charm to the track, which has resonated strongly with viewers.

She was last seen in Kis Kisko

Pyaar Karoon 2, starring Kapil Sharma. Directed by Anukalp Goswami, the film also features Manjot Singh, Hira Warina, Tridha Choudhary and Parul Gulati.

The event witnessed an impressive celebrity turnout, adding star power to the celebration of fresh talent. Bollywood personalities such as Rajkumar Rao, Farah Khan, Sonam Bajwa, Abhishek Banerjee and Ayesha Khan were spotted at the festival, lending glamour and industry support to the occasion.

Only Kriti Sanon Can Make Her Salon Day Look Like A Red Carpet Moment

Kriti Sanon has always impressed audiences with her acting skills, but her fashion sense is equally noteworthy. Even during casual outings, she manages to look effortlessly stylish and put together. She once again caught everyone's attention when she was spotted by the paparazzi in Mumbai. Her outfit was simple and comfortable, yet it looked classy and well styled. Kriti proved that everyday fashion does not have to be complicated to stand out.

Kriti Sanon was recently spotted heading to a salon, and even her quick self-care run turned into a full fashion moment. Walking in with her signature confidence, she kept things simple in a fitted black top paired with classic blue jeans and sneakers.

She elevated the look with dainty hoop earrings, goggles, a sleek belt, and a black-and-white hobo bag that tied everything together. Her high ponytail added that extra polish, making the entire outfit feel effortlessly put together.

Kriti Sanon's Instagram feed is filled with impeccably styled traditional ensembles and high-end western fits. But every once in a while, the actress gives us a glimpse of her off-duty wardrobe, and that's when things get even more relatable.

Last year, Kriti Sanon gave fans a glimpse of her vacation on Instagram, and her casual multi-coloured floral dress was definitely one to take inspiration from. It looked light, fun, and absolutely gorgeous.

In another vacation dump, along with some serene views, we also got a peek at what Kriti finds comfortable and casual enough to wear on a sea holiday. Her carousel featured several stunning snippets. In the second picture, she was seen wearing a cute black and sea-green co-ord set consisting of a bralette and a fitted skirt, which was a perfectly chic outfit.

In a picture with her sister, Nupur Sanon, Kriti slayed yet again in an all-white outfit consisting of a top and pants, proving that her casual style is always on point.

Zoya Akhtar Reviews Shanaya Kapoor And Adarsh Gourav's Tu Yaa Main, Says 'Do Not Miss'

Zoya Akhtar has shared a review of Tu Yaa Main, praising the performances of Shanaya Kapoor and Adarsh Gourav. She urged audiences not to miss the film. Her post quickly created buzz on social media, adding to the growing excitement surrounding the film.

Taking to her Instagram stories, Zoya Akhtar praised the film and wrote, "Saw this last night-Too much fun!! Do not miss!!! Also needs to be watched on the big screen!!!" Earlier today, Shanaya's BFFs Suhana Khan and Ananya Panday gave a big thumbs up to the film, and they simply loved her performance in it.

Arjun Kapoor shared the poster and wrote, "What an absolute this film was!!! Top performance by @adarshgourav ek dum maska !!! @shanayakapoor02 so proud of u for daring to do a genre bender & performing with so much ease!!! @bejoy-nambiar captain of the ship craft was elavted story telling on point the technical crew deserves big ups !!! To the producers full credit for backing this & all rest of the cast u guys added so much authenticity to this world & space... Go watch it on big screen #arjunrecommends." Karan is known for voicing his opinions, but he is not someone who writes goody-goody things for every movie. On February 13, he took to Instagram and dropped a lengthy note reviewing Shanaya and Adarsh's film. He went on to say that Tu Yaa Main made him 'take an extra dose of his BP meds'. Apart from appreciating the lead actors, he hailed director Bejoy Nambiar's 'solid craft and technical excellence'. His note read, "NO CARDIO NEEDED! You will physically jump out of your seats right through the second half of this traumatising (in the best way possible) survival croc edge of the seater! Swimming pools will never be the same for me again.... NEVER! And if you happen to have a partner this Valentine... take them to watch #tuyamain and tell them to wear armour because you will clutch onto them in FEAR!!!! I am still stressed and the film got over 30 minutes ago! I feel like a crocodile may appear even in the middle of Mumbai traffic and attack me (I am dramatic I know but this film has made me take an extra dose of my BP meds)."

Tu Yaa Main, starring Adarsh Gourav and Shanaya Kapoor in lead roles, released in theatres on February 13. Helmed by Bejoy Nambiar and bankrolled by Aanand L Rai, Himashu Sharma, Vinod Bhanushali, and Kamlesh Bhanushali, the film follows two influencers who are forced into a deadly game by circumstances. Tu Yaa Main clashes with Vishal Bhardwaj's O'Romeo at the box office. Jacob Elordi and Margot Robbie's Wuthering Heights was also released globally on the same day.

O'Romeo: Triptii Dimri Calls Shahid Kapoor 'Incredibly Supportive' Co-Star, Says This Role 'Challenged' Her

Shahid Kapoor and Triptii Dimri starrer 'O'Romeo', directed by Vishal Bhardwaj has released in theatres today. The film has been receiving good reviews from a number of celebrities including Ishaan Khatter, Rashmika Mandanna and others. As the film released today, Triptii Dimri took to her Instagram to share a heartfelt note thanking the entire team of the film. She revealed that playing Afshan in the film was quite challenging, and that it pushed her beyond her comfort zone. She also praised her co-stars Avinash Tiwary, and director Vishal Bhardwaj.

On Friday, Triptii Dimri took to her Instagram to share several stills of her character Afshan from O'Romeo. "Afshan isn't just a character, she's fire and fragility in the same breath. She feels deeply, loves fiercely and fights with everything she has. This role challenged me, demanded honesty & pushed me beyond my comfort zone for which I'll always be grateful," she wrote. She further added, "Our film is built with immense passion, heart & belief. From @vishalbhardwaj sir, I learned how to surrender to the character and truly live Afshan's truth."

Further praising her co-stars, Triptii added, "@shahidkapoor is an incredibly hardworking and supportive co-star I had a wonderful time sharing the screen with him... @avinashitiwary15 from sharing a love story to standing as rivals, it's been such a beautiful journey... @vikrantmassey your sincerity and craft elevate every scene you step in... had an incredible time working with you. Working with the amazing #FareedaJalal, @iamnanapatekar, @tamannaahs-peaks @dishapatani was truly special. I've always believed that it takes a village to make a film and I'm so proud of our entire cast and crew for putting their heart and soul into this. O' Romeo is now in cinemas. Go watch it and let Afshan find a place in your heart too," she wrote.

About O'Romeo

Directed by Vishal Bhardwaj and produced by Nadiadwala Grandson Entertainment, O'Romeo cast includes Shahid Kapoor, Triptii Dimri, Vikrant Massey, Tamannaah Bhatia, Avinash Tiwary, Disha Patani, Farida Jalal and Nana Patekar. The film released during Valentine's Week on February 13. The narrative centres on a turbulent love story exploring obsession, heartbreak and consequences shaped by emotional extremes. The film draws inspiration from a chapter in Hussain Zaidi's book Mafia Queens of Mumbai.

Nayanthara looks like a goddess in bikinis. She oozes oomph in her sensous avatar and we cannot take our eyes off her.
