

Rashmika Mandanna Kisses 'Husband' Vijay Deverakonda, Tears Up During Varmala

After years of dating rumours, subtle hints, and countless fan edits, Rashmika Mandanna and Vijay Deverakonda have finally turned their much-loved relationship into a forever promise. The internet's favourite duo tied the knot on February 26, 2026, in Udaipur in the presence of their close friends and family members. Now, the newlywed couple has shared their first official wedding pictures, and they are nothing short of breathtaking.

Dressed in stunning traditional ensembles and glowing with happiness, the two look deeply in love as they begin a new chapter together. From candid smiles to heartfelt rituals, every frame captures the warmth, intimacy, and joy of their big day, and fans simply cannot keep calm. Vijay and Rashmika took to social media and shared the pictures with the fans. Along with the pictures, Vijay wrote, "One day, I missed her. Missed her in a way that made me feel like my day would've been better if she were around. Like my meals would've felt more wholesome if she were sitting across from me. Like my workouts would've been more fun and less of a punishment if she were doing them with me. Like I needed her – just to feel that sense of home and calm, no matter where

I was. So, I made my best friend... my wife.

Social media is already flooded with congratulatory messages as admirers celebrate the union of one of South cinema's most adored pairs. Celebs and fans were seen showering love on the couple in the comments section.

Rashmika and Vijay's pre-wedding festivities kicked-started with a bang on February 24. They enjoyed a fun cricket match with the guests, followed by an extravaganza sangeet ceremony in the evening. A source earlier informed us that Rashmika had planned a heartfelt dance performance for her husband-to-be. While she performed to multiple tracks, one song held particular significance. She chose Angaaron from her blockbuster Pushpa 2 and dedicated it to Vijay.

On February 25, the couple enjoyed their haldi and mehendi ceremonies. The couple even gave a peek into their elegant haldi decor. Interestingly, the duo even gave a personal touch as it featured animated photos of their furry friends. Post the rituals, the couple finally sealed the deal today at ITC Mementos, Udaipur. Reportedly, they honoured the Telugu and Kodava traditions with two separate rituals.

Kriti Sanon Gets Emotional Seeing Rashmika Mandanna's Wedding Pics: 'Your Teary Smile Made Me Emo'

Rashmika Mandanna and Vijay Deverakonda's wedding did not just send fans into a frenzy – it also sparked heartfelt reactions from their friends in the film industry. As soon as the couple shared their first wedding photographs, social media turned into a celebration wall filled with love, blessings and emotional tributes.

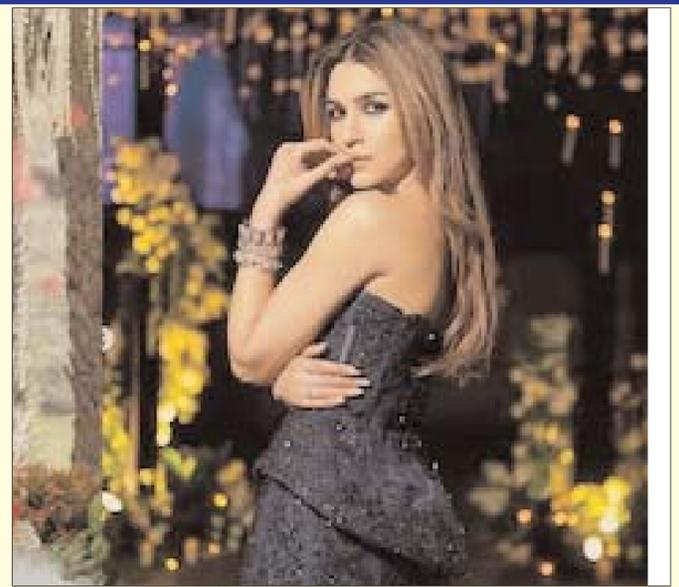

Among the most touching responses came from Kriti Sanon, who will soon share screen space with Rashmika in Cocktail 2 alongside Shahid Kapoor. Taking to Instagram Stories, Kriti wrote, "Uffffff... so much love and happiness in this frame. Congratulations you two!!! @rashmika_mandanna @theverakonda Wishing you guys a lifetime of beautiful memories and love that makes you feel alive & peaceful at the same time!!"

Her message quickly became more personal as she addressed the bride directly. "Rashuuuuuu!! I'm so so happy for you my love... that smile with teary eyes made me emo! You're one of the most pure hearted people I've ever met & you deserve all the happiness and more my friend! Sending you both a biggggg hug!"

The warmth of her words mirrored what many fans felt watching Rashmika's emotional yet radiant bridal moments.

Love Notes And Dual Ceremonies

Vijay, too, shared an intimate reflection alongside the wedding pictures. He wrote, "One day, I missed her. Missed her in a way that made me feel like my day would've been better if she were around. Like my meals would've felt more wholesome if she were sitting across from me. Like my workouts would've been more fun and less of a punishment if she were doing them with me. Like I needed her – just to feel that sense of home and calm, no matter where I was. So, I made my best friend... my wife, 26.02.2026."

Rashmika introduced her husband with equal emotion. "Hi my loves, Introducing to you now My Husband! Mr. Vijay Deverakonda!! The man who taught me what true love feels like, The man who showed me what being in peace feels like! The man who told me everyday that dreaming big was absolutely ok and constantly telling me I was capable of achieving something much more than what I could possibly think I ever could!"

She added, "The man who's never stopped me from dancing like no one's watching..the man who showed me travelling with friends is the best thing ever, and trust me I could write a book on this man!"

The couple honoured both their roots with two ceremonies – a traditional Telugu wedding in the morning reflecting Vijay's heritage, followed by a customary Kodava (Coorg) ceremony celebrating Rashmika's background.

Newlyweds Vijay Deverakonda, Rashmika Mandanna Invite Amit Shah To Reception With Silver Ganesh Idol

Newlyweds Vijay Deverakonda and Rashmika Mandanna personally invited Union Home Minister Amit Shah to their upcoming wedding reception, and photos from the meeting are now circulating widely online.

In the images, the couple is seen presenting a formal invitation along with a silver idol of Lord Ganesh placed inside an elegant box – a gesture symbolising auspicious beginnings. Rashmika looked radiant in a mustard suit styled with open hair and minimal makeup, while Vijay opted for an ivory indo-western ensemble. The duo were also seen interacting warmly with the minister at his office, smiling as they marked yet another milestone following their wedding.

The photos surfaced shortly after the couple tied the knot in an intimate ceremony attended by close family members and friends. Their decision to personally extend invitations reflects the traditional values both actors have often spoken about.

Earlier, Prime Minister Narendra Modi extended his congratulations and blessings to the couple. In a letter addressed to Vijay's parents, he wrote, "It is a pleasure to be invited by you to the wedding of Vijay and Rashmika to be held on February 26, 2026. Heartiest congratulations, and greetings to the Deverakonda and Mandanna families on this truly joyous and auspicious occasion."

PM Modi's Blessings And A Private Celebration
The Prime Minister described their union as the beginning of a "new, beautiful chapter" and reflected on the sacred meaning behind marriage.

Referring to the traditional concept of taking seven steps together, he noted that the couple would become lifelong companions in friendship and partnership.

"Neither Vijay, nor Rashmika is new to scripts in their films. But this divinely scripted chapter of their real lives, filled with love and affection, will surely outshine the magic they have created on the silver screen," the Prime Minister said.

He further added, "May the days, months and years to come be filled with shared dreams and their fulfilment. With thoughtfulness and love, may they share responsibilities, embrace each other's imperfections, learn from each other's strengths and journey through life as true partners," offering his best wishes to both families.

After keeping their relationship private for over seven years, Vijay and Rashmika married at the luxurious ITC Mementoes following traditional Telugu Hindu rituals on Thursday.

While fans and media gathered outside hoping to catch a glimpse of the newlyweds after the morning ceremony, the couple chose to keep the celebrations intimate. However, their teams distributed sweet boxes to the paparazzi stationed outside the venue – a subtle yet joyful confirmation that the wedding had taken place.

Aditi looks awesome in a neutral-toned halter gown that fits like a dream. And the pearls on pearls on pearls? Beautiful is an understatement!

Kareena Kapoor Khan 'Can't Wait' For This Mumbai Event, Details Inside

Kareena Kapoor Khan has long been celebrated for her effortless style, and she has proved that fashion truly has no boundaries for her.

Whether it's a glamorous gown, a classic saree, or laid-back sportswear, the actress carries every look with unmatched confidence and ease.

As the brand ambassador of PUMA, Kareena celebrated the launch of the PUMA Speedcat x Outhouse sneaker collaboration. What makes this launch special is its unique setting, a ferry party on the water. The high-energy event will take place in Mumbai on February 28, starting at 7:30 pm, promising a stylish celebration in motion.

Kareena shared the announcement on her Instagram story, expressing her excitement by writing, "Can't wait".

She also included a link allowing fans to book their spot for the exclusive event, instantly creating buzz among her followers.

The actress has been frequently spotted wearing PUMA over the years, seamlessly blending athleisure with everyday fashion. Last year, Kareena teamed up with Olympic medalist P. V. Sindhu for the PUMA India campaign.

While Kareena brought her signature glamour in sculpted burgundy co-ords and sleek monochromes, Sindhu embodied athletic power in functional, movement-focused silhouettes. The collection showcased high-waisted leggings, sports bras, training sneakers and statement outerwear, bridging gym-ready comfort with street-style appeal.

From Powder Blue Athleisure to Statement Styling
In another campaign post, Kareena stunned in a powder blue athleisure ensemble. Her first look featured a printed blue sports bra paired with matching high-waisted pants, layered with a draped jacket in the same shade. Chic sunglasses and blue suede sneakers

Continuing her athleisure run, Kareena showcased more striking outfits in another post. One look featured a relaxed black T-shirt paired with a black skirt, styled effortlessly with sleek black PUMA shoes. The second ensemble saw her in an olive co-ord set, consisting of a sleeveless cropped zip-up jacket and wide-legged tracks, balancing comfort with modern edge.
