YouTuber Sourav Joshi Weds Avantika Bhatt In Rishikesh; Viral Photos Capture 'Pavitra Bandhan' Moments

Popular YouTuber Sourav Joshi, one of India's most followed digital creators, has officially begun a new chapter in his life. The 25-year-old tied the knot with Avantika Bhatt in a serene, intimate ceremony held on the ghats of Rishikesh, surrounded by close family, friends, and the quiet hum of the Ganga flowing beside them.

On Saturday, December 6, Sourav finally treated his fans to glimpses of the magical wedding, posting a series of photographs with the caption, — a poetic nod to the sacredness of the moment. Avantika, who belongs to Uttarakhand and is the daughter of a well-known astrologer, had become the centre of curiosity months earlier when Sourav unexpectedly revealed her face to the world through a set of engagement photos in mid-November. Not a content creator herself, Avantika commands an impressive online presence, boasting more than 402K followers on Instagram.

Their story, however, stretches far beyond social media. According to reports, the couple's families have shared a close bond for years, with both fathers being long-time friends — making this union feel less like a surprise and more like a tradition fulfilled.

Uttarakhand CM Attends The Wedding

The celebrations also saw a special guest: Uttarakhand Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami. A photograph of him standing alongside Sourav, Avantika, and their families quickly went viral, adding a political note to what was otherwise a deeply personal affair.

Before meeting Avantika, Sourav had once sparked relationship rumours with Priya Dhaba. A picture of the two posing in front of a glittering "Will you marry me?" sign had previously set the internet buzzing. While neither confirmed the relationship, several reports over the years suggested they were dating before eventually parting ways.

Sourav's massive digital popularity has also come with unsettling challenges. Just a few months before his wedding, the YouTuber received a threatening email from a group calling itself the Bhau Gang, demanding ₹5 crore and warning of severe consequences if he didn't comply.
