

Yamini Malhotra Engages In Fun Banter With Paparazzi, Rides On Scooty

Yamini Malhotra always manages to spread cheer and smiles wherever she goes. The Bigg Boss 18 contestant, who generally makes headlines for her bold fashion choices, was spotted engaging in fun banter with the paparazzi.

In the video, the actress was wearing a colourful salwar suit, featuring a deep V neckline. She paired it with matching accessories, and heavy earrings. While posing for pictures, she interacted with the paparazzi and started laughing with them. She then proceeded to ride on one of the photographer's scooters, leaving everyone in splits.

Yamini Malhotra was recently spotted celebrating Holi at an event in Mumbai. Dressed in a plain white sa-ree, the actress came prepared to celebrate the festival to the fullest. She styled her simple white saree with a red sleeveless blouse, adorned with crystals and stones. She styled the traditional look with matching red bangles and opted for heavy jhumkas. To complete her look, Yamini added a pair of sleek black sunglasses. Later, she shared a video from the event on Instagram showing her before-and-after look from the Holi event.

The actress who gained massive fame after her appearance on Bigg Boss 18 made her Bollywood debut in Chill Maar Na Bro. During an interview with Bollywood Bubble, she opened up on re-entering South Indian films and shared, "The stories being told in South Indian cinema today are bigger, bolder, and rooted in emotional truth. There's so much beauty in the writing, the vision, and the depth of characters. And now, I finally feel I'm ready as an actor and as a person to be part of that."

Despite having an interest in working in South Indian films, Yamini did not have the courage to step forward. "I was in awe, but also slightly intimidated because of the language barrier. I wasn't ready at that time. Now, after so many life and work experiences, I can proudly say I am," she told the outlet.

A trained dental surgeon, Yamini Malhotra transitioned into cinema and made her mark with the Telugu film Chuttalabbai and continued to grow across industries. Although Yamini revealed her interest in re-entering South Indian films, she has not yet revealed anything about her upcoming projects.

Sonam Bajwa Refuses To Pose For Paparazzi, Internet Says 'Everyone Is Mad At Her'

Sonam Bajwa was recently spotted in Bandra after one of her casual outings. Soon, social media users began comparing her behaviour with the shutterbugs that to the anger her on-screen lover Harshvardhan Raane had towards her in the romantic movie, Ek Deewane ki Deewaniyat.

In a video posted on Instagram, Sonam Bajwa was seen being papped while exiting some event. She looked stunning in her chic avatar. However, she refused to wait and pose for the paparazzi. After the shutterbugs consistently requested her to strike some cool poses for the lens, the actress asked, "Kya wait karu idhar (Why should I wait here)?"

The Baaghi 4 actress even asked the paparazzi to let her walk towards her car and said, "Thora side ho jaiye (Move a little to the side)." As she boarded her car, the shutterbugs bid her adieu, and she joined them, while waving with a smile.

The 35-year-old was dressed in an off-white coloured, sleeveless tank top and styled it by tying a knot at one side. She teamed it with a pair of full-length, wide-leg blue denim jeans. For accessories, she carried a small black shoulder bag, a bracelet and a sleek watch. Her long, brown hair was left open to cascade down in layers, and she complemented her look with minimal makeup. Overall, she was exuding pure effortless glam.

The video soon sparked a wave of attention on social media. A user hilariously said, "Now I realised why Harsh Vardhan was mad at her," highlighting both the actors' on-screen roles in the romantic movie, Ek Deewane ki Deewaniyat.

Another added, "Everyone is mad at her, yaar."

Some of her fans even complimented the actress for her chic avatar, with one of them writing, "She is beautiful, cutie." Many other comments read, "Beautiful," "So sweet," and "Cutie." "Big fan sonambajwa ka punjab ludhiana to," said a person. While someone said, "So gorgeous look," another fan shared, "Very beautiful."

The actress, who kick-started her journey in the Punjabi film industry, made her Tamil film debut with Kappal opposite Vaibhav in 2014. Two years later, she made her Telugu debut in Aatadukundam opposite Sushanth. Since then, she has been part of several Punjabi, Tamil, and Telugu movies, and has even had cameo roles in Hindi movies.

Finally, last year, Bajwa made her debut in Hindi films with Housefull 5 opposite Riteish Deshmukh. Following its commercial success, she starred opposite Harshvardhan Rane in Ek Deewane Ki Deewaniyat.

Yami Gautam Reacts To Aditya Dhar And Ranveer Singh's Dhurandhar 2 Trailer: 'A Celebration Awaits'

Ranveer Singh's Dhurandhar 2 has created buzz on social media as the makers have released a trailer. Now, Yami Gautam has also reacted to the recently released trailer, directed by Aditya Dhar. The actress shared her excitement on social media, praising the team and hinting that the film promises a grand cinematic experience.

Taking to her Instagram handle, Yami Gautam shared the trailer and wrote, "Ladies & gentlemen, you are still not ready for this. A celebration awaits you, March 19, 2026." Fans also immediately reacted. One of the fans wrote, "All set to break some records! Great work @adityadharfilms and team." Another wrote, "This will be fireeeee." Earlier also many celebrities praised trailer. Alia Bhatt reposted the trailer and praised its intensity. In her caption, she wrote, "Beast mode on!!! This trailer is out of control!" Ram Gopal Varma shared his reaction online. He shared a post on X and kept his message short but enthusiastic. The filmmaker wrote, "This is STRATOSPHERIC LEVEL.. Aditya Dhar is on a RAMPAGE of REVENGE, Dhurandhar 2."

Directed by Aditya Dhar, Dhurandhar: The Revenge marks Ranveer Singh's return as Jaskirat Singh Rangji who continues his rise in a dangerous power struggle in Lyari. The story hints at an intense revenge arc while also exploring how he was trained to become Hamza Ali Mazari. The glimpses of his backstory and transformation have sparked curiosity among viewers. The sequel also features several familiar faces returning in powerful roles. Arjun Rampal and Sanjay Dutt appear in fierce avatars in the trailer, sending fans into a frenzy. The film also stars R Madhavan, Sara Arjun, Rakesh Bedi and Danish Pandor in key roles.

Dhurandhar: The Revenge follows the journey of an Indian spy who infiltrates criminal networks operating in Lyari while secretly working to eliminate terror groups targeting India. As he navigates the underworld and climbs the ranks, the film promises high-stakes confrontations.

Initially, Dhurandhar 2 was expected to clash with Toxic: A Fairytale for Grown-Ups starring Yash. But the makers later postponed that film's release to June 4 due to concerns that tensions in the Middle East could impact box office performance. On the other hand, the Aditya Dhar film is scheduled to release in theatres on March 19, with paid preview shows planned for March 18.

Kriti Kharbanda, Pulkit Samrat Walks Hand-In-Hand After Romantic Dinner Date In Bandra

Pulkit Samrat and Kriti Kharbanda, the 'IT' couple of Bollywood, have always painted the town red with their adorable chemistry. Every time they step out together, social media is flooded with videos showing their lovey-dovey exchanges, heartwarming moments and a romance. Now, their love album has a new addition. The madly-in-love duo were recently snapped in Mumbai's Bandra after a dinner date.

Several videos and pictures of the couple have since gone viral. In a video circulating online, the duo is seen happily posing for paparazzi before heading to their car hand-in-hand. Exuding their warm smiles and sharing sweet moments together, Kriti and Pulkit once again proved why they are one of Bollywood's most romantic pairs.

For the outing, the two served major couple style goals in stunning ensembles. Kriti looked breathtaking in a denim bodycon dress paired with beige heels and a black handbag. Pulkit, on the other hand, opted for a casual yet stylish look, wearing a black T-shirt with matching pants. He completed his dashing look with red and white shoes.

The madly-in-love couple first crossed paths on the set of the 2019 film Pagalpanti. Their friendship soon blossomed into love. After dating for a few years, Kriti Kharbanda and Pulkit Samrat tied the wedding knot in a private ceremony in Manesar, Haryana, on March 15, 2024. Their wedding was attended by close family members and friends and was a perfect blend of love, joy, and traditions.

Last seen in Vipul Vig's comedy film Rahu Ketu, Pulkit Samrat is gearing up to make his OTT debut with the Netflix original television series titled Glory. Made under the direction of Karmanya Ahuja and Karan Anshuman, the sports crime thriller will see Pulkit Samrat essaying the role of a boxer. The project, backed by Atomic Films, also stars Divyendu and Suviner Vicky.

Kriti Kharbanda, on the other hand, will be next seen alongside Rana Daggubati on an exciting new project. Reports suggest that the film is currently in production, with around 50 per cent of the shoot already completed.

Janhvi Kapoor was last seen in the romantic drama Sunny Sanskari Ki Tulsi Kumari. She will be next seen in Telugu action entertainer Peddi.
