

BJP holds Mahila Samvad on 'Naari Shakti Vandan Adhiniyam' in Jammu

HIMALAYAN MAIL NEWS
JAMMU, APR 15

An amalgam of women's organizations convened a programme titled "Naari Shakti Vandan Adhiniyam - Mahila Samvad" at the Central Mahajan Sabha, Shalimar Road, Jammu, to express gratitude to Prime Minister Narendra Modi for ensuring enhanced political representation for women through the historic Naari Shakti Vandan Act, 2023.

Leader of Opposition Sunil Sharma specially graced the occasion, which witnessed the participation of a wide cross-section of women representations from society including five Inner Wheel teams, DDCs BDCs, Councillors, Sarpanches, Panchs, heads and members, Self-Help Groups, social activists, Swadeshi Jagran Manch, Durga Vahini, Modi Jagran Manch, WVAO, BJP Mahila Morcha, advocates, doctors and citizens from all walks of life, BJP J&K vice president and former Minister Priya Sethi, BJP spokespersons Purnima Sharma (former Deputy Mayor), and Rajni Sethi, Veenu Khanna, Veena Handa, Amita Sharma, Saavmya Pramukh and others.

Purnima Sharma, in coordination with other women organizations organized the whole event. Sunil Sharma, in a strong endorsement of women's political empowerment, hailed the Naari Shakti Vandan Adhiniyam, 2023 as a "historic and visionary reform" driven by the decisive leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, stating that it marks the culmination of decades of struggle to ensure rightful political representation for women.

Sunil Sharma asserted that the Modi government has fundamentally transformed the discourse on women empowerment, from symbolic inclusion to real, institutional participation. He emphasized that while previous governments kept the issue of women's reservation entangled in political deadlock, it was Prime Minister Narendra Modi's strong will and commitment that translated this long-pending demand into reality.

Sunil Sharma added that delaying women's representation weakens the very foundation of democracy, and the Modi government's push for early implementation of the Act reflects its seriousness in ensuring inclusive governance. He remarked that the legislation completes the journey from social and economic empowerment to full political empowerment of women, laying the foundation for a stronger, more balanced democracy.

Earlier, welcoming the gathering, Adv. Purnima Sharma, termed the Naari Shakti Vandan Adhiniyam a "historic structural reform," stating that under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, India has moved from women development to women-led development, ensuring women's rightful place in governance. Kunwarani Ritu Singh, entrepreneur, philanthropist, and Founder of Delhi Public Schools said that under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, a decades-old demand for women's political reservation has been fulfilled. She highlighted that earlier attempts had failed due to political deadlock, but this legislation has now paved the way for equal participation of women in governance. She remarked that the Act lays the foundation for a stronger and more inclusive democracy. Varsha Bansal, Chairperson of FICCI FLO J&K-Ladakh, elaborated on the core provisions of the Act, stating that the legislation provides 33% reservation for women in the Lok Sabha and State Legislative Assemblies, including within SC/ST reserved seats, made possible under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. She highlighted that despite women forming nearly 50% of India's population, their representation in Parliament remains around 13-14%, calling the Act a much-needed corrective step. She said the move from 14% to 33% represents a structural correction in Indian democracy and will ensure inclusive and balanced governance. Educationist Anthony Ma'am emphasized that the Act, brought under the vision of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, goes beyond representation and has the potential to transform governance outcomes.

BJP holds cells, corporators meets in Srinagar

JAMMU, APR 15

Ashok Koul, General Secretary (Organization) of Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) Jammu & Kashmir, chaired two organizational meetings at Srinagar, engaging with the Incharge and Co-Incharges of ULB, Panchayat, and Cooperative Cells, as well as former corporators of the Srinagar Municipal Corporation.

J&K BJP General Secretary Anwar Khan, Secretaries Arif Raja and Mudair Wani, along with BJP All Cells Co-Incharge Billal Parray and other senior functionaries were present in the meetings.

Ashok Koul, while addressing the meetings, emphasized the crucial and distinct roles played by party cells and former corporators in strengthening the party at the grassroots level. He highlighted that while cells serve as specialized platforms to reach specific sections of society, former corporators possess valuable administrative experience and direct public connect, which must be effectively utilized for organizational growth. Koul asked the participants to intensify party activities among the masses and ensure consistent engagement with the public. He stressed the need to proactively reach out to people, listen to their concerns, and act as a bridge between the government and the citizens. He further directed them to create widespread awareness about the welfare schemes and developmental initiatives launched under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, ensuring that the benefits reach every eligible individual. Reiterating the party's commitment, Koul said that BJP is steadfastly working towards the holistic development of Jammu & Kashmir, focusing on progress, transparency, and good governance. He called upon party leaders to effectively communicate the vision and policies of the BJP and Narendra Modi to the grassroots, thereby strengthening public trust. Anwar Khan, speaking on the occasion, emphasized the importance of coordinated efforts among various party units to achieve organizational objectives and expand outreach. He called for a collective resolve to further energize party cadres and enhance BJP's presence across all sections of society in Jammu & Kashmir. Billal Parray highlighted the need for active participation of all cells in public-centric programmes and stressed strengthening their role in connecting with different segments of society.
