Tejasswi Prakash Clears The Air On Marriage Rumours With Karan Kundrra: 'Not Happening Anytime Soon'

Karan Kundrra and Tejasswi Prakash are one of the most loved couples in the television industry. From their time on Bigg Boss in 2021 to their appearances at public events, the lovebirds continue to dish out major relationship goals, keeping fans hooked with their cute moments and unwavering support for each other. The duo keeps hitting headlines for various reasons. Recently, it was rumoured that they secretly tied the knot in London. However, it was rubbished by Karan on X later. Now, actress Tejasswi Prakash has reacted to the speculations and opened up about her marriage plans.

In a recent chat with Bombay Times, Tejasswi Prakash spoke about her wedding plans with Karan and said, "That's not happening anytime soon." Currently, the couple is seen together in Laughter Chefs Season 3. Talking about working with each other, the actress said, "There are, of course, a lot of things that you do explore with each other on a professional basis. You do tend to understand how the other person likes to work. Especially for me, there's so much that I get to learn from Karan, him being my senior. For me, it's been a learning process."

Karan Kundrra's reaction to the marriage reports

Earlier, Karan Kundrra took to his X (previously Twitter) handle and wrote, "Shaadi vaadi toh chalo har do chaar saal baad karwa hi dete hain.. how cute is bhindi Maamu!!!" His tweet was a response to Bharti Singh's YouTube vlog, in which the comedian's son, Gola, called him 'Bhindi Mamu'. As soon as he tweeted, one user commented, "@kkundrra gola ko sikhao ki ya to mama mami bole ya masa masi. Dono ko mama masi bulwate behen bhai ban jaoge." Karan reacted to the same with a hilarious dog GIF, hiding the face. Another user wrote, "Bhindi mamu is the cutest. rhi baat shadi ki tho vo tho hum mazak krte rhte hai apne dil khush krne ke liye." Karan replied, "Tumhare mazaak ke chakkar mein article aa jaate hain."

Karan and Tejasswi, popularly known as TejRan, are currently busy entertaining the audience with their sweet nok-jhok in Laughter Chefs. It also fea-

'I Haven't Gone Under The Knife': Avneet Kaur Breaks Silence On Plastic Surgery And Botox Rumours

Actress Avneet Kaur has often found herself in the spotlight, not just for her work but also for her evolving public image. She is quite active on social media and keeps treating fans with her glam pictures. Every now and then, her transformation keeps sparking widespread speculation, with many attributing her glow-up to Botox or other cosmetic procedures. The actress has now addressed the chatter and reacted to the claims.

In a recent interview with Pinkvilla, Avneet Kaur responded to rumours suggesting she's undergone plastic surgery. She set the record straight and said that she hasn't gone under the knife ever. She said, "I don't see these comments. Look at your childhood photo and then look at your photo now, you all look different, too, I'm sure. Everyone grows up, and our features change a little as we grow older."

The actress clarified that what many perceive as a "transformation" is simply a natural process of maturity. Pointing at her face, she noted that it would not remain the same as before, emphasising that youth is fleeting and ageing is inevitable, and not something that should be questioned. Further, Avneet denied undergoing any cosmetic procedures. She added, "I haven't gone under the knife or anything. My nose is the same, my everything is the same... my eyes are the same. Everything I have is natural, thanks to my mom."

Meanwhile, Avneet made news in 2025 after Virat Kohli mistakenly liked a photo of her from a fan page on Instagram. The accidental interaction sparked massive online speculation and fan debate, leading Kohli to clarify it was a technical "algorithm" error. He shared a note to clarify his stance. His note read, "I'd like to clarify that while clearing my feed, it appears the algorithm may have mistakenly registered an interaction. There was absolutely no intent behind it. I request that no unnecessary assumptions be made. Thank you for your understanding."

Avneet too had reacted to the controversy during her interaction with India Today. She had said, "I just keep working hard, that's what I am focused on, honestly. I just try to better myself in every aspect, not just acting. I try to focus on other things more, and I obviously never forget my dream or that I have to make my parents proud. These are some of the things that I try not to get distracted by, because if I keep focusing on these things, I will not be able to grow, and that's not what I am looking for."

Meanwhile, Avneet was last seen in Love in Vietnam, alongside Shantanu Maheshwari.
