

Harnaaz Sandhu In Talks For Leading Role Opposite Vicky Kaushal In Mahavatar | Exclusive

Vicky Kaushal's upcoming Mythological film, Mahavatar, is generating quite the buzz as the female lead is yet to be announced. Earlier, there were reports that Deepika Padukone was joining the project. More recently, it was reported that Shraddha Kapoor would star opposite Vicky Kaushal. However, our sources tell us that it is, in fact, Harnaaz Sandhu, who is in talks with the makers.

A source close to the development exclusively tells News18, "The makers were keen on casting a fresh face opposite Vicky Kaushal in Mahavatar to create a new on-screen pairing, and they are in conversation with Harnaaz Sandhu for the role. This fresh pairing will bring together two Punjab-rooted actors, which will keep the viewers hooked."

Harnaaz Kaur Sandhu became a household name after winning the Miss Universe 2021 crown, bringing the prestigious title back to India after 21 years. With that historic win, she became only the third Indian woman to be crowned Miss Universe, following Sushmita Sen and Lara Dutta.

While Harnaaz had previously worked in Punjabi cinema (in Yaara Diyan Poon Baran and Bai Ji Kuttan Ge), she made her Bollywood debut with Baaghi 4, starring alongside Tiger Shroff and Sanjay Dutt. She played a dual role, and her acting ability was largely appreciated by fans of the franchise.

Meanwhile, Vicky Kaushal will reportedly undergo a physical transformation for his role in the film. Recent reports claim that since he is currently working on Sanjay Leela Bhansali's Love and War, the transformation has been put on hold. Vicky reportedly features an athletic build in Bhansali's film and will now have to look like a wrestler. "For Mahavatar, he will need to build a heavy frame like that of a wrestler, complete with a rugged look and long, matted hair. After Love & War reaches the finish line in April, the actor will adopt a new diet plan and workout regime to attain the required look," a source had told Mid-Day.

While an official announcement of the film's cast is awaited, the buzz around the leading lady has kept fans on their toes!

On Thursday night, social media users claimed that Virat has reportedly liked one of German influencer Lizzalazz's pictures on Instagram. The 'like' once Joking about it, one of the Reddit users wrote, "Anushka will be very upset." Another user suggested Virat make another private Instagram account: "cheeku bhai private id bnalo." A third user took a dig at Kohli and called it a "mistakenly registered interaction".

Hansika Motwani has finally addressed her divorce from Sohael Khatriya. In a recent interview, the actress was asked about the social media chatter and negativity around her personal life. To this, Hansika mentioned that she has never really clarified in public and will never do so. She also clarified that she has "no regrets" about changes in her personal life and added that she is "happy".

"People wanted clickbait, they got it. They wanted headlines, they got it. I have never clarified it, nor will I, because it doesn't matter to me. It's fine. I have no regrets. It's better to get off the train if you got onto the wrong train than suffer. I have immense support from my family. I have no regrets. I am very happy where I am," Hansika told Hauter, as quoted by Mid-Day.

Hansika further revealed that her mother and brother supported her during this difficult time. Sharing what they told her about her separation, the actress stated, "Both my mother and my brother were like, 'If you are not comfortable, don't go through it.' And they have seen me in a very dark space—a very dark space. I am a very happy, jolly person. For me to go into a dark space, it was kind of alarming. So they were like, 'Whatever you decide.' And honestly, till today, no one knows what happened between the two of us, and it's the best. I always say that what happens between two people is known only to them. There is nothing that another person can say or comment about."
