Seerat Kapoor Reacts After Being Called 'Allu Arjun Property': 'Admire With Dignity, Not Ownership'

Seerat Kapoor has strongly reacted to a misogynistic comment linking her to Allu Arjun. The actress called out the language used by an Instagram user after they referred to her as the Pushpa star's "property" under one of her latest posts.

The comment quickly went viral online because Seerat chose not to ignore it and instead reacted directly with a detailed message that spoke of respect, identity and dignity.

The actress had recently shared glamorous pictures of herself in a brown lacy outfit with the caption, "Entering the weekend like my own muse (star emoji)." While most fans flooded the comments section with compliments and heart emojis, one Instagram user wrote, "Allu arjun property (heart emoji)."

Seerat Kapoor Responds To Misogynistic Comment

Instead of letting the remark pass, Seerat replied with a firm message. "Adding a (heart eye emoji)" doesn't make it sound any respectful Sir. A woman is never anyone's property. She's her own person, with her own identity, dreams & voice. Admire with dignity, not ownership. Stay blessed."

Her reply received support from several followers, with many praising her for addressing the comment publicly instead of ignoring it. One fan wrote, "This is exactly how you deal with trolls." Another wrote, "Well said."

Conversation around Seerat Kapoor and Allu Arjun had already picked up earlier this year when the actress shared unseen pictures with the star on his 44th birthday in April. The photos, believed to have been clicked aboard Allu Arjun's private jet during an international trip, left many fans surprised as they did not know the two actors shared such a close bond. Alongside the pictures, Seerat also posted a warm birthday note for the actor.

"Happy Birthday, Bunny @alluarjunonline (evil eye and sparkle emojis) You've always carried both your craft and your relationships with such natural ease-graceful, grounded and authentic. Wishing you endless success, great health and everything that truly aligns with you, on and off screen. Always rooting for you! (white heart emoji)."
