Janhvi Kapoor Reveals Why She Won't Attempt Malayalam In Films Again After Param Sundari

After making her Telugu debut with Devara: Part 1 in 2024 and trying her hand at Malayalam for the 2025 film Param Sundari, actress Janhvi Kapoor, who is predominantly a Bollywood star, has confessed that Malayalam was no easy feat.

Speaking about how she can now call herself a multilingual actress, considering she knows many languages, and if there are any other languages she wants to learn, Janhvi told IANS: "All of it, really."

The actress, who is gearing up for the release of her Telugu film "Peddi," revealed that Malayalam was difficult for her, so she does not see herself attempting it again anytime soon.

"But I don't think I should attempt Malayalam again because it's too difficult for me. It's such a beautiful, sweet language. But I think I've been phonetically quite familiar with Tamil and Telugu," Janhvi said.

She's enjoying her tryst with Telugu films and wants to explore Tamil movies too.

So, I'm really enjoying working in Telugu films. I'd love to explore Tamil films as well," Janhvi concluded. Peddi is directed by Buchi Babu Sana. The film also stars Boman Irani, Shiva Rajkumar, Janhvi Kapoor, Jagapathi Babu, and Divyenndu. The film is finally releasing on June 4.

On the Bollywood front, Janhvi was last seen in Sunny Sanskari Ki Tulsi Kumari by Shashank Khaitan. It also stars Varun Dhawan, Sanya Malhotra, Rohit Saraf, Maniesh Paul and Akshay Oberoi.

The film followed Sunny and Tulsi, who are heartbroken after their partners, Ananya and Vikram, abandon them to marry each other. Sunny and Tulsi then team up to crash the wedding of their former lovers.

Janhvi made her acting debut in 2018 with the romantic drama Dhadak. She was then seen in films such as Gunjan Saxena: The Kargil Girl, Mili and Devara: Part 1. She has since earned praise for her role as a woman of a lower caste navigating social discrimination in Homebound.

Tanishaa Mukerji Reveals Sister Kajol 'Signs The Cheque Books' For Her Mumbai Home

Kajol and Tanishaa Mukerji are one of Bollywood's most loved sister duos, and their close bond was recently evident when the latter revealed that her sister played a significant role in helping finance her charming vintage-inspired home in Mumbai. She recently welcomed Farah Khan and her cook Dilip into her Mumbai residence for an episode on the filmmaker's YouTube channel. While giving viewers a tour of her beautifully designed vintage-style home, Tanishaa opened up about its journey and revealed that her sister, Kajol, played a crucial role in helping her turn the dream into reality by financially supporting her.

Farah Khan seemed impressed by the vibe of her house. She said, "I am loving this vibe. You cannot find a house like this in Mumbai. I feel like I have arrived in Kolkata." During the interaction, she revealed that most of the furniture in the house came from her old family home. When Farah asked if it was her mother's house, the former actress confirmed, "Yes, my mum's house. This is all my mum's furniture because my dad was not a very homely person. I shifted here around 14 years ago. Now I am settled here. Mumbai changed, according to me. The Sea Link came up too."

Curious about Kajol's involvement, Farah playfully questioned Tanishaa about her sister's contribution to the house. She instantly replied, "She paid for it!" Farah then said, "Okay, well done. That's the only kind of contribution we want." To this, Tanishaa said, "She signs the cheque books."

Tanishaa Mukerji stepped into Bollywood with the 2003 thriller Sssshhh, sharing screen space with Karan Nath and Dino Morea. Although the film did not perform well commercially, she went on to build a diverse body of work with projects such as Sarkar, Neal 'n' Nikki, and the Tamil romantic drama Unnale Unnale. She further gained popularity on Bigg Boss 7 in 2013. She was the first runner-up. Tanishaa was last seen in the 2024 film Luv You Shankar.

Alia Bhatt Will NOT Play A Spy Or 'Good Hero' In Alpha, Actress To Play An Assassin In YRF Film: Report

Bollywood star Alia Bhatt will be seen playing a killer in 'Alpha', raised and trained to kill. News about her character in the upcoming Yash Raj Films' entertainer Alpha was doing the rounds on social media. However, a source close working with the production confirmed to IANS: "Alia Bhatt is definitely playing a killer in Alpha."

"She isn't like the goody good heroes that the YRF Spy Universe has introduced so far and is, in fact, an assassin who has been raised and trained to kill. She isn't a spy. She is an alpha killer," said the source.

As per the source, YRF head honcho Aditya Chopra wanted to give a new, cool hero "who shouldn't be judged for her actions but should be seen as someone who will do as she pleases."

The source added: This is a very today's way of looking at protagonists because people want to see exciting, entertaining protagonists on screen. Alia's character in Alpha will do just that!"

"With Alpha, Aditya Chopra is taking a very unconventional approach to build a hero. This is clearly a creative pivot for the YRF Spyverse and a much-needed one for the universe that wants to score big with Alpha as it puts a leading lady doing hardcore action in an action entertainer entirely mounted on her," added the source.

When contacted, YRF spokesperson did not deny the news. "All we can say is that everyone should wait for the first asset of Alpha. We can neither confirm or deny this chatter at this stage," the person said.

Alpha also stars Sharvari alongside Alia. It has Bobby Deol essaying the role of a villain and Anil Kapoor in a pivotal role. Directed by Shiv Rawail, known for helming The Railway Men, the film is set to release on July 3.

Sonal Chauhan's got a wardrobe that will blow your mind, especially when it comes to her off-screen style which is both bold and classy.
