

Kriti Sanon's Telugu Debut 1: Nenokkadine Re-Releases In Theatres, Fans Celebrate Sayonara

Kriti Sanon's Telugu debut 1: Nenokkadine, co-starring Mahesh Babu, has returned to theatres, giving fans a chance to revisit one of the most talked-about films from the actress's early career. The psychological action thriller, originally released in 2014, has been re-released on the big screen and has sparked a wave of nostalgia among fans, especially in the Telugu-speaking markets.

The re-release comes at a time when Kriti is also making headlines for her upcoming Bollywood film Cocktail 2. As excitement builds around her current projects, fans are looking back at the film that marked the beginning of her cinematic journey.

Directed by Sukumar, 1: Nenokkadine starred Mahesh Babu in the lead role and introduced Kriti Sanon to the silver screen. Though the film was widely discussed for being ahead of its time during its original release, it has gradually earned a cult following over the years for its psychological premise, stylish treatment and Devi Sri Prasad's music.

The film's re-release has now turned into a celebration for fans. Videos from theatres have gone viral on social media, showing audiences cheering, dancing and singing along as the film plays on the big screen once again.

Fans Sing Along To Sayonara In Viral Theatre Videos

One of the biggest highlights of the re-release has been the response to the song Sayonara. Viral clips from packed cinema halls show fans waving their phone flashlights and singing along to the track, turning the theatre atmosphere into what looked like a live concert.

The energy inside the theatres reflects the enduring recall value of 1: Nenokkadine. The cheers, dancing and collective singing underline how the film has grown in stature over the last decade, finding fresh appreciation among fans who continue to celebrate Mahesh Babu and Kriti Sanon's screen presence.

1: Nenokkadine's Cult Status Over The Years

When 1: Nenokkadine first released in 2014, its complex storytelling and psychological action format stood apart from conventional commercial cinema. Over time, however, many viewers have revisited the film and praised its ambition, technical craft and music.

For Kriti Sanon, the film remains an important milestone, as it marked her entry into cinema before she went on to establish herself in Bollywood. The grand response to the re-release serves as a reminder of the impact her debut continues to have among fans.

With Cocktail 2 now among her upcoming projects, the theatrical return of 1: Nenokkadine creates a bridge between Kriti's early screen journey and her present phase as one of Bollywood's leading stars.

Jennifer Winget Set To Marry Boyfriend William Ishmael; Alia Bhatt's Alpha Teaser To Arrive On June 10?

Jennifer Winget wedding: Actor Jennifer Winget seems to be gearing up for a major new chapter in her personal life. After weeks of speculation online, sources close to the actor have confirmed to Hindustan Times that she is in a relationship with Singapore-based businessman William Ishmael and that the couple are planning to get married.

Alia Bhatt and Sharvari's Alpha continues to remain one of the most anticipated Bollywood releases of the year. The YRF Spy Universe film has been making headlines ever since its announcement, and after audiences got a brief glimpse of it at the end of War 2, all eyes are now on its teaser.

Ram Charan enjoys a massive fan following, and he is currently on a promotional spree for his recently released film Peddi. While an earlier video showed a fan being pushed away for trying to breach Ram Charan's security, a video of a similar incident from a Hyderabad event has surfaced online.

The legendary band Guns N' Roses is returning to India after a year and is set to perform for the first time in Bengaluru and Guwahati.

Anees Bazmee has assured fans that No Entry 2 is still very much in the works, despite recent reports of delays, scheduling issues and possible changes in the cast. The long-awaited sequel, which is expected to feature a new ensemble led by Varun Dhawan, Arjun Kapoor and Diljit Dosanjh, has remained in the news over uncertainty surrounding its production timeline.

Chal Chalen Aasman Pe Fame Ankita Jadhav Gears Up For OTT Debut

Actress Ankita Jadhav, who has featured in music videos such as Chal Chalen Aasman Pe, Dil Dhadak Raha Hai and Mere Mahiya, is set to add another project to her growing body of work with the upcoming song Hai Yeh Junoon.

The actress has been steadily building her screen presence through a string of music video appearances, taking on varied roles and gaining visibility among audiences. While still in the early stages of her career, each project has helped expand her portfolio and offered her opportunities to explore different emotions and performances on screen.

Adding to the momentum, Ankita is also set to make her OTT debut with an upcoming Hindi web series for a prominent streaming platform. While details of the project are being kept under wraps for now, the actress is understood to be particularly excited about the opportunity. The series is expected to mark an important milestone in her journey as she looks to expand her work beyond music videos and into long-form storytelling.

Away from her professional commitments, Ankita maintains an active social media presence, where she shares updates from shoots, events, travels and everyday life. Her online profile offers a mix of personal and professional moments, giving followers a glimpse into her journey as she continues to establish herself in the entertainment industry.

With Hai Yeh Junoon lined up for release and a Hindi web series in the pipeline, Ankita Jadhav continues to take measured steps forward as she works towards carving out her own space in the industry.

Tanmay Bhatt Takes A Dig At Ranveer Singh's Don 3 Row, Tells Varun Dhawan 'You're Still Professional...'

One of the most prominent feuds in Bollywood right now is between Ranveer Singh and Farhan Akhtar after the Dhurandhar star allegedly made an abrupt exit from Don 3. Now, in a new YouTube video, Tanmay Bhatt took a playful jab at the dig while in conversation with Varun Dhawan. The clip has gone viral across social media platforms.

Tanmay Bhatt said, "Varun, anyone who has ever worked with you has always said that despite being a big Bollywood star, you're still like professional, committed, reliable. Which is incidentally exactly the kind of actor that Farhan Akhtar is looking for right now. I don't know, maybe you should..."

Tanmay's comment left everyone in splits, including Varun Dhawan. Many on social media wondered if Tanmay was indirectly calling Ranveer unprofessional and unreliable, or if he was just making a joke about the actor's ongoing row with Farhan Akhtar. Tanmay also took a playful dig at Varun for previously comparing Dilwale with Inception. Varun clarified that his statement was just a joke.

As for the feud between Ranveer and Farhan, according to multiple online reports, Ranveer Singh exited Don 3 due to creative differences with the makers. Some reports claimed that Ranveer wanted Don 3 to be more violent. Several reports also suggested that Ranveer was unhappy with repeated delays in production and the absence of a locked final script.

What initially appeared to be a routine casting change then escalated into a legal matter, with Akhtar's Excel Entertainment demanding Rs 45 crore in compensation and the Federation of Western India Cine Employees (FWICE) issuing a non-cooperation directive against the actor. However, this directive was heavily criticised by other film and television bodies, and Ranveer received massive support from Bollywood.

Ranveer Singh even sent a legal notice to FWICE, and the film body revoked its directive. It was even reported that Salman Khan had tried to intervene and solve the dispute, given his fondness for the Akhtars. However, it was later clarified that there was no truth to these claims and Salman hadn't called either Ranveer or Farhan.

Meanwhile, as for Varun Dhawan, the actor is currently seen in Hai Jawani Toh Ishq Hona Hai. The comedy film is directed by his father, David Dhawan, and stars Mrunal Thakur, Mouni Roy and Pooja Hegde among others. It is performing decently at the box office.

Manushi turns up the heat in a bright yellow monokini featuring waist cutouts and peekaboo details. This look practically demands a yacht backdrop!