

Mithun Chakraborty's Daughter Dishani Gets Engaged To Beau Myles Mantzaris At Dreamy Proposal

Veteran actor and politician Mithun Chakraborty's daughter Dishani Chakraborty is now engaged to her beau Myles Mantzaris and will get married on December 6, 2026.

Dishani, in a collaborative post, shared a string of pictures from the proposal. In the images, Myles, who, as per his Instagram bio, is a steadicam operator and a colourist, is seen on his knee as he proposed to Dishani.

Another image showed the daughter of the Disco Dancer star flaunting the big rock on her finger. The last photograph had the couple sharing a sweet kiss.

For the caption, Dishani wrote: "06.12.2026 ... The easiest forever I've ever known."

The post was liked by actress Celina Jaitly.

Dishani is the adopted daughter of Mithun, who is married to actress Yogeeta Bali. He was first married to actress Helena Luke in 1979.

Four months later, the couple separated and filed for a divorce. Mithun and Yogeeta got married in 1979. They have four children, Mimoh, Ushmey, Namashi, and an adopted daughter, Dishani.

Talking about Mithun, he has a career spanning over five decades and has done 350 films. Tagged as "Mahaguru", he is a former Rajya Sabha Member of Parliament.

He made his acting debut with arthouse drama Mri-gayaa in 1976, directed by Mrinal Sen, for which he won his first National Film Award for Best Actor.

He gained greater fame with the 1982 film Disco Dancer. Agneepath, Patni Aur Tawaif, Gunahon Ka Devta, Roti Kee Keemat, Trinetra, Shatranj, Tadipaar, Jung, Kaalia, Daadagiri, Guru, My Name Is Anthony Gonsalves, Housefull 2, The Tashkent Files and The Kashmir Files.

The television show Dance India Dance, where Mithun was the Grand Master, also entered the Limca Book of Records and the Guinness World Records.

Mithun's latest release is The Bengal Files, directed by Vivek Agnihotri. It presents a storyline focused on the Direct Action Day and the Noakhali riots, depicting the violence and its aftermath as a genocide.

Meet Nidhaa Bhatt, The Woman Who Married Urmila Matondkar's Ex-Husband Mohsin Akhtar

Ever since Urmila Matondkar's ex-husband Mohsin Akhtar shared pictures from his wedding, social media users have been eager to know more about the woman who has become a part of his new journey. While the newlywed couple has largely stayed away from the spotlight, fans have already begun flooding the comments section with warm wishes and heartfelt messages.

Nidhaa Bhatt, who recently married Mohsin Akhtar, maintains a relatively private presence online. Very little verified information about her is publicly available, and her social media accounts offer only limited details about her personal and professional life.

Following Mohsin's wedding announcement, several followers took to Instagram to express their happiness for the couple. One user wrote, "@mohsinakh Seeing you here, so beautifully happy and fulfilled, brings tears to my eyes. You have always deserved the absolute best, and I am so incredibly grateful that you found it in @nidhab. Seeing the way she loves you and how you both look at each other is everything we ever prayed for. Finally, your beautiful new chapter begins. @nidhab_ we are so incredibly blessed to officially welcome you into our family and our hearts. We love you both so much."

Also Read: Urmila Matondkar's Ex-Husband Mohsin Akhtar Finds Love Again, Marries Nidhaa Bhatt

Another admirer of the couple commented, "Masha Allah @nidhab_ seeing you so happy fills my heart with joy. May Allah bless your Nikah, protect your love, and grant you a beautiful life together filled with barakah, peace, and endless happiness. Ameen."

While Nidhaa has not publicly shared many personal details, a look at her private Facebook profile reportedly suggests that she is from Srinagar, Jammu and Kashmir. However, information regarding her profession and background has not been independently verified.

Another well-wisher congratulated the newlyweds and wrote, "My dear brother, seeing you so happy fills my heart with joy and gratitude. May Allah bless this beautiful union with endless love, peace, mercy, and barakah. May He keep your hearts united in faith, strengthen your bond through every season of life, and make your home a place filled with sabr, shukr, laughter, and countless blessings."

Mohsin has also continued sharing moments from the wedding celebrations on Instagram. In one of the videos posted on his Stories, he was seen going down on one knee and placing a ring on Nidhaa's finger during a ceremony on stage, a moment that quickly caught the attention of followers.

Earlier, while announcing the marriage, Mohsin dedicated an emotional note to his wife and expressed gratitude for finding love again. He wrote, "Pure intentions, honest love, and a heart full of sabr and shukur. Keep your soul pure, heal along the way, and trust that Allah's script is always better. In His perfect time, my gorgeous wife @nidhab_ , he rewarded me with your sincerity and blessed me. You brought light in my life. So thank you my love."

Mohsin was previously married to actor Urmila Matondkar. Their relationship had attracted public attention due to their interfaith marriage and the age difference between them.

Sharvari In Talks To Star Opposite Kartik Aaryan In Luv Ranjan's Next? What We Know

Sharvari's impressive run in the film industry appears to be gaining further momentum. She was recently seen in Imtiaz Ali's film 'Main Vaapas Aaunga' alongside Vedang Raina, and she is being lauded for her performance. Following the positive response to the film, and with major projects such as Alpha and Sooraj Barjatya's Yeh Prem Mol Liya in the pipeline, the actress is now being considered for another interesting film. As per reports, filmmaker Luv Ranjan is exploring the possibility of casting Sharvari opposite Kartik Aaryan in his upcoming directorial venture.

According to Bollywood Hungama, discussions are still at an early stage. Sharvari is believed to be enthusiastic about the opportunity and keen to collaborate with the director. A source told the entertainment portal, "Luv Ranjan is in talks with Sharvari to play the female lead of his next, which features Kartik Aaryan in the lead. Sharvari has shown excitement, and is looking forward to collaborating with Luv Ranjan, the man behind some of the best Gen-Z films of the last 10 years."

While no official agreements have been signed yet, the final casting decision will be made once the script is locked and narrations are completed. However, there is optimism on both sides regarding the potential collaboration.

According to sources, the project is currently in the writing phase, with Ranjan taking his time to develop the screenplay before moving ahead with casting formalities. "Luv is still writing the script and intends to roll with his directorial by December 2026. He will narrate his full film to Kartik first, followed by Sharvari towards August 2026. The paperwork will begin once the full narration is done," said the source.

If all goes as planned, the film could go on floors towards the end of 2026.

Meanwhile, Sharvari is gearing up for the release of Alpha, starring Alia Bhatt. The teaser and poster of the film were unveiled a few days ago, further adding to the excitement for the film. Directed by Shiv Rawail of The Railway Men fame, Alpha also stars Bobby Deol and Anil Kapoor in pivotal roles. Produced by Yash Raj Films, the action thriller is scheduled to hit theatres on July 3, 2026.

Sshura Khan Shuts Down 'Old Man' Jibe At Arbaaz Khan: 'He's Limited-Edition Vintage Model'

Sshura Khan had a witty response ready after a social media user took a dig at her marriage to actor-producer Arbaaz Khan by referring to him as an 'old man.' Sshura, who welcomed her first child with Arbaaz last year, recently interacted with her followers online. During the QnA session, a troll left a comment that appeared to mock the couple's age difference. The social media user asked whether she was happy with 'old man.' Rather than reacting angrily, Sshura chose humour, and handled the situation with grace and wit.

A social media user asked Sshura, "R u happy with old man," along with a laughing emoji. While the troll appeared to mock their marriage, Sshura clapped back at him with her savage reply. Replying to the troll, she wrote, "Are you for real? He's not an old man, he's a limited-edition vintage model."

Meanwhile, another Instagram user asked, "What made you say yes to your first date with Arbaaz?" to which Sshura replied, "I lost a bet to him, so I had to treat him to dinner," along with a smiley emoji. Another netizen asked how their married life is going to which she replied, "Mast."

Another follower was curious to know who chose the name Sipaara Khan for her and Arbaaz's daughter. "Salim uncle (Arbaaz's dad)," wrote Sshura. When asked how motherhood is going, she described it as "a magical journey" where she is "simultaneously exhausted, entertained, and being summoned every 12 seconds."

When Arbaaz Khan Addressed Age Gap With Wife Sshura Khan Arbaaz Khan and Sshura Khan, who share an age gap of 23 years, have previously spoken about their relationship dynamics. In an earlier interview with The Indian Express, Arbaaz addressed the age difference, saying that both were clear about what they wanted in life.

"Though my wife is much younger than me, it is not like she is 16 years old. She knew what she wanted in her life, and I knew what I wanted in my life. We spent a lot of time together in that one year to really see what we expect out of each other, what do we want, and how are we looking at our future. Such decisions are not made in a hurry," he said.

Arbaaz Khan and Sshura Khan tied the knot in December 2023 in an intimate ceremony attended by close friends and family members.

They first met on the sets of Raveena Tandon's film Patna Shukla, where Arbaaz served as the producer and Sshura was the makeup artist for the lead actress. After courting for a while, the couple exchanged vows in an intimate nikah ceremony held at Arbaaz's sister Arpita Khan Sharma's residence on December 24, 2023.

Kim Kardashian at beach in sexy black lingerie
Kim is so irresistible in this sheer black lingerie she poses with perfection in.