

FICCI JKL, Lakshyam honour traffic police personnel with cooling aids, power banks

HIMALAYAN MAIL NEWS
JAMMU, JUNE 18

In a heartfelt gesture of appreciation for the unwavering dedication and service of Jammu's traffic police personnel, FICCI FLO Jammu, Kashmir & Ladakh (JKL), in collaboration with Lakshyam, distributed 100 portable neck fans and over 60 power banks to traffic officers at the Police Headquarters, Jammu.

The initiative was organised to acknowledge the commitment of traffic personnel who spend long hours regulating traffic and ensuring public safety, often under challenging weather conditions and extreme summer temperatures. The neck fans and power banks are intended to provide much-needed comfort and convenience, helping officers remain connected, alert and better equipped while performing their duties in the field.

The distribution programme was conducted in the presence of Ms. Nisha Nathyal, IPS, DIG Traffic Jammu-Kashmir, and Mr. Amit Bhasin, JKPS, SSP Traffic Jammu, who appreciated the thoughtful initiative and its focus on the well-being of frontline personnel.

Representing FICCI FLO JKL were Ms. Varsha Bansal, Chairperson, Ms. Varuna Anand, National Initiative Head - Textiles, Handloom & Handicrafts, FICCI FLO and Past Chairperson, FICCI FLO JKL, and Ms. Sona Mehta, Vice Chairperson, FICCI FLO JKL.

Speaking on the occasion, Ms. Varsha Bansal said, "Our traffic police personnel serve tirelessly at the frontlines every day, often braving harsh weather conditions to ensure the safety and convenience of the public. This initiative is a small expression of our gratitude for their invaluable service and dedication. We hope these essentials provide them with some comfort as they continue to perform their duties with commitment and professionalism."

The collaboration between FICCI FLO JKL and Lakshyam was facilitated by Ms. Varuna Anand, whose efforts brought the two organisations together to support the welfare of Jammu's traffic personnel.

The initiative reflects the shared commitment of FICCI FLO JKL and Lakshyam towards recognising and supporting frontline workers, while fostering a culture of empathy, appreciation and community service. Through such meaningful engagements, both organisations continue to contribute towards building a more caring and socially responsible society.

JKPCC president addresses Congress protest rally on price rise at Ramgarh

JKPCC Presidednt Shri Tariq Hamid Karra addressed a massive protest rally against the rising prices of essential commodities, LPG, petrol, diesel, and other daily-use items at Ramgarh Tehsil in Samba district. During the protest, he criticized the BJP-led government over inflation and highlighted the hardships being faced by common people, farmers, labourers, traders, and middle-class families due to the continuous increase in the cost of day to day living.

The protest rally was organized by Shri Yash Paul Kundal (Former Minister) and was attended by PCC Working President Shri Raman Bhalla, and Former Member Parliament Ch. Lal Singh, who demanded immediate measures to control inflation and provide relief to the public.

JKPCC President while addressing the rally said that the people of Jammu and Kashmir continue to be deprived of their democratic and constitutional rights. He further said that congress will continue to fight for the restoration of state hood by greater public participation. He alleged that the BJP led Centre Govt. has failed to honour its repeated assurances regarding the restoration of statehood and is unnecessarily delaying the process.

Shri Tariq Hameed Karra strongly criticized the Govt. over repeated paper leak incidents and rising unemployment, stating that future of the youth is being compromised due to administrative failures. He said that thousands of deserving candidates are being deprived of fair opportunities, while joblessness continues to increase. He demanded strict action against those responsible for irregularities and urged the Govt. to create transparent recruitment mechanism and adequate employment opportunities for the youth.

Addressing the gathering, Working President JKPCC Shri Raman Bhalla strongly criticized the Central Government for its failure to control inflation and provide relief to the common masses. He said that the prices of essential commodities, cooking gas, petrol, diesel and other daily-use items have reached unbearable levels, badly affecting middle-class families, labourers, shopkeepers, youth and economically weaker sections. Bhalla stated that every household in the country is struggling due to the anti-people policies of the BJP government and despite repeated promises, no concrete measures have been taken to reduce inflation. He said that unemployment and inflation together have pushed people into severe financial distress while the government continues to remain insensitive towards public suffering.

Ch. Lal Singh peaking on the occasion, said that the BJP government has completely failed on the economic front and is trying to divert public attention from real issues. He alleged that the burden of rising prices is crushing the poor and salaried classes while big corporate houses are being favoured. He said that Congress Party will continue to raise the voice of the common people.

Senior leaders who attended the massive rally included Former legislators Shri Ved Mahajan, Th. Balbir Singh, Smt. Indu Pawar, Ch. Garu Ram & Shri Subash Gupta. Besides the above, Ex-DDC Sdr. T.S. Tony, DCC President Samba Shri Sanjeev Sharma, Shri Iqbal Dar, Bhavishya Sudan, Virinder Manhas, Vijayan Pathani, Babbal Gupta DCC Working President Samba, Jang Bahadur and Tirath Ram, (Ex-Sarpanch) also attended the rally

Modi Govt works for justice to all, appeasement to none: Billawaria

JAMMU, JUNE 18

Jammu & Kashmir BJP State General Secretary and former Deputy Mayor Baldev Singh Billawaria said that the Narendra Modi-led government has established a new model of governance based on the principle of "Justice to All, Appeasement to None," ensuring equal opportunities, dignity, and development for every section of society. He was addressing the Viksit Bharat Sankalp Convention organized at the BJP headquarters by the Scheduled Tribe (ST) Morcha under the leadership of its State President, Ch. Abdul Ghani.

Billawaria said that during the last twelve years, the Modi Government has worked with dedication and commitment for the welfare, empowerment, and socio-economic upliftment of the Scheduled Tribes across the country. He said that several historic initiatives have been launched to ensure that tribal communities receive the benefits of education, healthcare, housing, employment, and infrastructure development. In Jammu and Kashmir the STs have been provided political representation in assembly.

Highlighting the government's commitment towards tribal welfare,

Billawaria said that schemes aimed at improving road connectivity, drinking water facilities, educational opportunities, and livelihood generation have brought significant changes in the lives of tribal families. He added that the government has ensured that welfare benefits reach the deserving beneficiaries without discrimination or political considerations.

The BJP leader said that under Prime Minister Narendra Modi's leadership, the nation has witnessed inclusive growth where every citizen, irrespective of caste, creed, religion, or region, is treated equally. He emphasized that the vision of a "Viksit Bharat" can only be achieved through the participation and progress of all communities, including the Scheduled Tribes.

ST Morcha State President Ch. Abdul Ghani, who convened the convention, said that the Scheduled Tribe communities across the country have witnessed unprecedented attention and empowerment under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

He said that the Modi Government has ensured that the benefits of welfare schemes reach the last person in society, particularly those living in remote and tribal areas. Abdul Ghani emphasized that initiatives related to education, healthcare, housing, skill development, and livelihood generation have significantly improved the quality of life of tribal families. He urged party workers to take the achievements and welfare programmes of the government to every household and strengthen public participation in the mission of building a Viksit Bharat.

The convention was also addressed by BJP Spokesperson Balbir Ram Rattan, ST Morcha Vice President Ch. Askar Ali, Morcha Office Secretary Ch. Gulzar Jatt, Samba District President Ch. Mohd Sharief, Akhnour District President Ch. Gafoor, and Jammu North District President Ch. Mushtaq Bakerwal.
