

BJP organizes Viksit Bharat Sankalp Sammelan in Kishtwar, Citizens Pledge Support for Developed India

HIMALAYAN MAIL NEWS
JAMMU, JUNE 22

As part of the nationwide campaign marking the successful completion of 12 years of the Narendra Modi-led Government at the Centre, the Bharatiya Janata Party organized a grand Viksit Bharat Sankalp Sammelan in Kishtwar. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from prominent citizens, intellectuals, social activists, professionals, and party workers from different sections of society.

The Sammelan was addressed by Pawan Sharma, State Secretary, BJP Jammu & Kashmir, along with Shagun Parihar, MLA Kishtwar, and Ravi Parihar, District President BJP Kishtwar.

Speaking on the occasion, Pawan Sharma highlighted the unprecedented achievements of the Modi Government over the past twelve years and said that under the visionary leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, India has witnessed a historic transformation in every sphere, including infrastructure, economy, social welfare, national security, digital governance, and global diplomacy.

Sharma stated that the vision of "Viksit Bharat 2047" is not merely a government programme but a national mission aimed at making India a developed, self-reliant, and prosperous nation by the centenary year of Independence. He emphasized that the Modi Government has laid a strong foundation for this vision through landmark initiatives such as Digital India, Make in India, Startup India, PM Gati Shakti, Ayushman Bharat, PM Awas Yojana, Jal Jeevan Mission, and various welfare schemes benefiting the poor, youth, women, farmers, and marginalized sections of society.

He further said that Jammu & Kashmir has witnessed unprecedented development and stability during the last few years, with enhanced connectivity, improved infrastructure, expanded educational opportunities, and greater public participation in the democratic process. He credited the Modi Government for ensuring equitable development and empowering every region of the Union Territory.

Calling upon citizens to actively contribute towards nation-building, Sharma urged people to become partners in the mission of creating a developed India and to take the message of good governance, transparency, and inclusive growth to every household.

Addressing the gathering, Shagun Parihar, MLA Kishtwar, highlighted various developmental initiatives undertaken in Kishtwar and reiterated the commitment of the BJP towards the welfare and progress of the people. She emphasized that the policies of the Modi Government have strengthened the aspirations of youth and accelerated development in remote and underserved areas.

JKNC Central Zone Delegation Meets Dy CM, Reviews Development Projects in Jammu, Samba, Kathua

HIMALAYAN MAIL NEWS
JAMMU, JUNE 22

A high-powered delegation of the Central Zone of Jammu & Kashmir National Conference, led by Former Minister and Zonal President Babu Rampaul, met Shri Surinder Choudhary, Hon'ble Deputy Chief Minister of Jammu & Kashmir, and held detailed discussions regarding various public issues, overall welfare, development of the youth and general public including developmental projects being undertaken across the Jammu, Samba and Kathua districts.

The delegation raised several issues concerning road connectivity, construction and upgradation of school buildings, strengthening of hospital infrastructure, construction of bridges, augmentation of drinking water supply schemes, improvement of power infrastructure, and other public utility projects presently under execution in different areas. The members stressed the need for timely completion of these projects to ensure better civic amenities and an improved quality of life for the people.

The delegation also highlighted the importance of generating employment opportunities for local youth through developmental initiatives and sought focused attention towards irrigation facilities, flood protection measures, and improved public transport connectivity, particularly in rural and remote areas. They urged the Government to establish an effective monitoring mechanism to ensure quality and time-bound execution of all ongoing projects.

The Hon'ble Deputy Chief Minister gave a patient hearing to the delegation and assured them that the Omar Abdullah-led Government is fully committed to fulfilling all developmental promises made to the people. He informed the delegation that work on various ongoing projects is progressing at a fast pace and that necessary directions have been issued to the concerned departments to ensure their timely completion.

Shri Surinder Choudhary reiterated that the present Government believes in equitable and balanced development of all regions and is working tirelessly to strengthen infrastructure, improve public services, enhance healthcare and educational facilities, and accelerate development in both urban and rural areas of Jammu & Kashmir.

The Deputy Chief Minister further emphasized that the Government remains committed to transparency, accountability and people-centric governance, ensuring that the benefits of development reach every section of society, particularly farmers, women, youth and economically weaker sections.

The Central Zone JKNC delegation expressed satisfaction over the positive response of the Deputy Chief Minister and conveyed confidence that the Omar Abdullah-led Government will continue to prioritize people's welfare and deliver on its developmental commitments in a transparent and time-bound manner.

ADC Billawar Inspects Indoor Stadium, Reviews Works at Naaz Ground

HIMALAYAN MAIL NEWS
JAMMU, JUNE 22

Additional Deputy Commissioner (ADC) Billawar, Vishavjeet Singh (JKAS), on Monday inspected the Indoor Stadium Billawar and reviewed the progress of ongoing development works at Naaz Ground.

During the visit, the ADC assessed the available sports infrastructure and held discussions with officers of the Sports Council Department regarding various issues related to the Indoor Stadium.

He emphasized the importance of maintaining quality sports facilities for local youth and sports persons.

The ADC also inspected the ongoing works at Naaz Ground and directed the concerned officials to ensure timely completion of the project while maintaining prescribed quality standards.

He stressed the need to expedite the pace of work so that the facility can be made available for public use at the earliest.

The inspection was attended by the Assistant Executive Engineer (AEE), Sports Council, Manager Sports Council Billawar and other concerned officials.

Reiterating the administration's commitment towards strengthening sports infrastructure, Vishavjeet Singh said that improved sports facilities are essential for promoting sporting activities and encouraging youth participation across the subdivision.
