Jasleen Royal's latest independent single Inaam continues to gain momentum across music charts. The track, which features rapper Badshah and was released in April this year, has entered the Spotify Daily Viral Chart for Top Songs in India at the No. 15 spot. It has also found a place on Apple Music's International Pop Chart, where it is currently at No. 62.

The achievement marks another major moment for Jasleen, who has steadily built a space for herself as one of India's most distinctive composer-singers. With Inaam, she has once again managed to straddle both mainstream and independent music spaces, while drawing attention to the growing reach of female-led non-film music in India.

Inaam has been gaining traction not only as a song but also as a social media trend. The track has sparked a wave of Instagram Reels, with celebrities including Janhvi Kapoor, Mrunal Thakur, Bharti Singh, Sara Tendulkar and Urfi Javed using it in their videos.

The song's emotional tone and reflective lyrics have helped it connect with listeners who are using it to soundtrack personal stories around healing, resilience, self-care and recovery. With its steady rise across platforms, Inaam has emerged as one of the most talked-about independent tracks of the season.

The song has also drawn attention for its chart performance amid competition from several high-profile tracks. It has entered the Top 15 Viral Charts alongside songs such as Karan Aujla's Boyfriend, Mashooqa from Cocktail 2, Tum Ho Toh from Saiyaara and Shararat from Dhurandhar.

Jasleen Royal's latest milestone with Inaam adds to a long list of chart successes. Over the years, she has delivered several songs that have enjoyed strong listener recall and streaming numbers.

Her catalogue includes tracks such as Din Shagna Da, Sahiba, Ranjha and Heeriye. While Heeriye became a global phenomenon and emerged as a No. 1 trending music video on YouTube globally, Sang Rahiyo has continued its impressive chart journey. The song has remained on Spotify charts for 833 days and currently stands at No. 51, after having previously peaked in the Top 15.

With Inaam now joining that list, Jasleen's latest independent single strengthens her position as a composer-singer who has been able to build both commercial popularity and emotional connection with listeners.

Who Is Krishi Thapanda? Kannada Actress In News After Businessman Found Dead At Her Bengaluru Home

Kannada actress Krishi Thapanda has been a familiar face in the industry ever since she won Miss Karnataka in 2014 and made her acting debut with Akira. Over the years, she has featured in several Kannada films and also appeared on Bigg Boss Kannada. Now, the actress has unexpectedly found herself in the headlines after a tragic incident at her Bengaluru residence.

Krishi, who comes from a Kodava family in Coorg, wasn't always part of the film industry. Before stepping into modelling and acting, she worked as an assistant manager at US-based audio conferencing company InterCall. Her journey into cinema began after she was offered Kahi, although Akira became her first release in 2016. Since then, she has appeared in films including Eradu Kanasu, Kannadakkaagi Ondannu Otti and, most recently, Gana (2025), alongside Prajwal Devaraj, Vedhika Kumar and Yasha Shivakumar. She was also a contestant on Bigg Boss Kannada Season 5, hosted by Kichcha Sudeep.

The actress is now linked to an ongoing police investigation after a 33-year-old businessman, identified as Vaishak, was found dead inside her apartment in Bengaluru's RR Nagar area on the night of June 24.

According to a report by The Hindu, Vaishak, a resident of Girinagar, had been staying in an apartment in RR Nagar for the past few days. Police said he was alone inside Krishi's flat when the incident took place. Investigators have not recovered any suicide note or video message from the apartment.

The report further stated that Vaishak had tried to contact Krishi shortly before the incident. However, she was reportedly in Nelamangala at the time and could not answer his call. He allegedly later sent messages indicating that he intended to take his own life.

After seeing those messages, Krishi is said to have alerted Vaishak's family members. His relatives rushed to the apartment, but he was found dead before they could reach him.

Following the incident, Vaishak's father lodged a complaint with the police. A case of unnatural death has been registered, and investigators are now looking into the exact circumstances surrounding the incident.

Reports also suggest that Vaishak had faced legal issues earlier this year. He was allegedly arrested in connection with an extortion and criminal intimidation case before being released on bail. The case reportedly began after businessman Aravind Reddy complained of receiving a courier containing a threatening letter demanding several crores of rupees and warning of serious consequences. Police later arrested Vaishak in connection with the complaint.

Krishi Thapanda has not yet made any public statement regarding the incident, and the investigation remains underway.

Among the contestants this season is Akanksha Chamola, wife of television actor Gaurav Khanna. However, in the very first episode, Akanksha made a revelation that left Farah shocked.

Akanksha revealed on the show that she and Gaurav Khanna have decided to part ways and are heading for divorce. She shared that the two have been living separately for the past one year, but had kept the matter private until now.

Akanksha Chamola Reveals She And Gaurav Khanna Are Getting Divorced

Speaking on Lock Upp 2, Akanksha said, "Gaurav Khanna and I are getting divorced. We have been living separately for the past one year. People don't know about this yet."

She further added that the decision was mutual and something they had been discussing for a long time. "This is a decision we have both taken. We have been talking about it for the past one year," Akanksha said.

Her confession came as a surprise to Farah Khan, who appeared visibly taken aback by the revelation.

Why Are Akanksha Chamola And Gaurav Khanna Getting Divorced?

Akanksha clarified that there is no bitterness between her and Gaurav. She said that things have not turned ugly between them and that they continue to speak to each other. However, over time, they realised that they may not be right for each other as life partners.

"There is nothing bad between Gaurav and me. We still talk to each other, but we feel that we are not right for each other as partners. That is because we both want different things in life," she said.

Akanksha added that their families had also suggested that they spend some time apart to see if distance would help them understand each other's importance.

Akanksha Says She And Gaurav No Longer Feel Like A Couple
Akanksha revealed that their marital issues had been going on since the time Gaurav participated in Bigg Boss 19. She said, "All this has been going on since Bigg Boss 19. Gaurav's parents and my parents told us to stay separately for some time."

'It All Reeks Of A Publicity Stunt': Gaurav Khanna, Akanksha Chamola Trolled After Divorce Revelation

After Akanksha Chamola revealed her separation from Gaurav Khanna on Lock Upp, netizens accused the couple of faking their romance on Bigg Boss for publicity.

Lock Upp: Sach Ya Sazaa's first episode aired yesterday, and it took the internet by storm after Gaurav Khanna's wife, Akanksha Chamola, announced that she and her husband have been living separately for a year and have decided to get divorced. While the news came as a shock to their fans, a section of social media users has been slamming Gaurav and Akanksha for allegedly fooling the audience.

Many believe that either they were being fake during Bigg Boss, or Akanksha is lying now to gain attention for herself. During the episode, when asked to reveal one of her secrets, the actress shared, "Since we continued talking to each other, attended events together, supported one another, and shared everything, everyone believed things would work out. But that feeling of being a married couple was no longer there. I think this will be big news even for our families."

One user wrote, "If they were already separated for a year, then what was that 9th anniversary romance in BB? Matlab seriously, itna fake #GauravKhanna, you and your wife have always been fake..." Another commented, "Nowadays everyone is just acting; there is no real connection. The only thing I liked about #GauravKhanna was his wife and his beautiful relationship with her. Her cute, mischievous personality attracted me. But it all turned out to be acting."

If #GauravKhanna and her wife #AkankshaChamola heading for divorce and have been living separately from past 1 year toh #BiggBoss me vo sab drama tha kya? Akanksha ka to interest phele bhi nahi dikha tha but Gaurav ne to BB me full acting ki.

A third user shared, "Well honestly, it all reeks of a publicity stunt for #AkankshaChamola's #LockUpp journey. Their last post together on IG is also from Holi, where they had very PDA-type poses. This doesn't corroborate with her claiming that they don't have anything like a married couple between them anymore. Secondly, if she doesn't want to identify as '#GauravKhanna's wife' and has already been separated for one year, then why are her social media accounts still named Akanksha G Khanna? To me it's simple—she wanted to come to Lock Upp, but the show's concept is such that you have to have some controversy attached to you, so she tried creating this for eyeballs."
