

Vicky Kaushal Soaks In Mumbai Rains With Wife Katrina Kaif, Shares Cosy Picture From Home

Vicky Kaushal offered fans a look into his life with Katrina Kaif on Wednesday, July 2, sharing a black-and-white photograph that captured the couple enjoying the monsoon together. The Instagram post went viral as fans praised the couple's warmth and their habit of sharing only occasional glimpses of their personal life.

The black and white photo shows Vicky Kaushal and Katrina Kaif standing beside a rain-soaked window. Katrina rests her chin on Vicky's shoulder while the two look outside.

Vicky Kaushal and Katrina Kaif tied the knot on December 9, 2021, in an intimate traditional Hindu ceremony in Sawai Madhopur, Rajasthan, attended by close friends and family. The couple welcomed their first child, a son, Vihaan Kaushal, on November 7, 2025.

The actor's latest social media update comes a few months after he addressed criticism over remarks made during a wedding appearance that went viral online. In the clip, Vicky was seen asking the groom's father to get the groom to say, "How's the josh?" After the audience replied, "High, sir!", he joked, "Maine yeh dekha hai ki bachelors ka josh hamesha high rehta hai. Hum shaadi-shuda waalon ka josh saal dar saal girta rehta hai. Par tension lene ki baat nahi hai, 4 din mein josh kam nahi hota." (I've noticed that bachelors always have high energy and enthusiasm. For those of us who are married, that enthusiasm keeps dropping year after year. But don't worry, it doesn't fade in just four days).

The remarks received backlash on social media, leading Vicky to speak about the episode during an interview with The Nod Magazine. Looking back at the criticism, he said, "There is no way that just because you're a public figure, you need to be perfect. Sometimes we do deserve the brickbats, and maybe the learning there for me is that, as much as people are giving me love, it also comes with a certain sense of responsibility."

On the work front, Vicky Kaushal is currently filming Love & War, directed by Sanjay Leela Bhansali. The film also stars Ranbir Kapoor and Alia Bhatt and is scheduled to release in theatres on January 21, 2027.

Katrina Kaif was last seen in Merry Christmas opposite Vijay Sethupathi. The Hindi-Tamil bilingual, released on January 12, 2024, received praise for the performances of its lead pair and their on-screen chemistry.

Sanjay Gupta Compares Scrutiny Around Siya Goyal To Rhea Chakraborty's Media Trial, Faces Massive Backlash

Director Sanjay Gupta urged all not to repeat the media trial of Rhea Chakraborty after Sushant Singh Rajput's death while commenting on the Pune murder case-accused Siya Goyal.

Filmmaker Sanjay Gupta has weighed in on the ongoing discussion around the Pune murder case, urging people not to repeat what he described as the media trial of actor Rhea Chakraborty after Sushant Singh Rajput's death. His post on X came as police continue to investigate the alleged murder of 25-year-old Ketan Vishal Agarwal, in which his fiancée Siya Goyal has been named as an accused.

Ketan Agarwal, heir to his family's real estate business in Pune, died after allegedly being pushed off Lohagad Fort near Lonavala on June 18. Police have alleged that Siya Goyal, along with her alleged lover Chetan Chaudhary, planned the murder because they wanted to marry each other.

Reacting to the intense coverage surrounding the case, Sanjay Gupta shared a post on X that read, "Not standing in judgement. Not taking sides. Just saying — can we please stop doing to Siya what we did to Rhea? We all watched that circus. The trial-by-television. The verdict before the evidence. We never learn."

His post sparked a debate online, with many users disagreeing with the comparison between the two cases.

Several users argued that the circumstances surrounding the Pune case were different from those in Rhea Chakraborty's case. One user wrote, "Bored sick of it but you didn't just equate both?? Sia actually murdered Ketan." Another commented, "What is #wrong with you? Or nothing is right with you? She is a #murderer. There is enough evidence. She not only killed a boy but his entire #family by killing their only #son." A third user questioned the comparison, writing, "Right, but how can the two cases be compared? Unless I've missed reading any new developments, wasn't Sia actually present on the scene when her fiancé was pushed off the cliff?"

According to the police, Siya Goyal and Chetan Chaudhary allegedly conspired to kill Ketan Agarwal because they wanted to marry despite Siya's engagement to him.

Investigators have alleged that Ketan survived an earlier murder attempt days before he was allegedly pushed off a cliff at Lohagad Fort on June 18. The case has also seen another legal development. After Siya's brother, Sahil Goyal, denied that the family had appointed Aashuutosh Srivastava as her lawyer, Srivastava sent a ₹10 crore defamation notice, alleging that false claims had been made about his role in the case. In March 2025, the Central Bureau of Investigation filed closure reports in the cases related to Rajput's death, concluding that it was a case of suicide and finding no evidence of foul play or involvement by Rhea Chakraborty or her family.

'People Say Nupur Got A Dangerous MIL...': Stebin Ben Reacts To Viral Video Of His Mom Ignoring Nupur Sanon

Singer Stebin Ben and Nupur Sanon, actress Kriti Sanon's sister, exchanged wedding vows earlier this year in a grand ceremony attended by their close friends and family. The newlyweds were recently seen out with their parents, but it wasn't long before a video from the outing sparked online chatter. Several social media users alleged that Stebin's mother appeared to walk away without acknowledging Nupur or her family, prompting widespread speculation. Now, in a recent interview, Stebin addressed the backlash and cleared the air around it.

While speaking to Galatta India, Stebin Ben came out in support of his mother and said that his parents are "very simple people." He said, "My parents are very simple people. Whenever they see the media, they quietly move away because they feel that the media is there for me, not for them. They think, 'This is your profession. People want to see you, not us.' My parents didn't know the media was standing there. The moment they saw the flashlights, they just started walking ahead. I told them, 'It's okay, you go ahead, we'll come behind.' Nupur tried to stop them, but they didn't even realise someone was calling them. They just thought, 'Media hai, chalo nikalte hain.'"

Addressing the speculation, Stebin rubbished the rumours of any rift between his family and Nupur. Emphasising that there was no truth to the claims, he cited the warm bond shared by Nupur and his mother as an example of their close relationship. He added, "People are saying

Nupur got a dangerous mother-in-law, but it's exactly the opposite. If you meet my parents, you'll understand they're the most simple people. Their whole life revolves around their children. My parents wanted to retire and settle in Kerala because they loved the plantations and the peaceful life there. But they decided to stay with us because we insisted. Their life revolves around their children. If Indians want to know what my mother and Nupur's relationship is like, here's the answer - whenever we play games at home, my mother and Nupur are always on the same team. My father and I are on the other side. That's the kind of bond they share."

Nupur and Stebin got married in Udaipur in grand Christian and Hindu wedding ceremonies.

Richa Chadha Backs Dia Mirza After Son Avyaan Is Trolled: 'She Gifted Me 1100 Trees'

Dia Mirza recently found herself at the receiving end of online trolling after a clip from Soha Ali Khan's podcast went viral. In the video, the actor spoke about an incident involving her 5-year-old son Avyaan, who scolded a delivery agent for bringing coconut water in plastic bags with plastic straws. While Soha praised the child's conviction, several social media users criticised Dia and her son, with some calling the episode an example of "entitled arrogance."

Amid the backlash, actor Richa Chadha has now come out strongly in support of Dia. Taking to X, Richa defended the actor's long-standing work in the field of environmental awareness and also called out people for attacking a child.

Richa reposted a note by a social media user who accused Dia of preaching ecological consciousness while allegedly driving a Jaguar. Responding to the criticism, Richa wrote a long note on X and questioned why actors are often discouraged from speaking up.

"Y'all wonder why actors don't Richa then highlighted Dia's environmental work and said that speak up? (Damned if you do, damned if you don't!) Apart from the routine haranguing by the usual, brain-dead suspects, there's also this! Of course punch up yaar, actors ki mental health ka kya hai. Aaye din suicides kar ke salacious news cycles ko feed bhi karna to artist ka kartavya hona chahiye. Haina? Women with privilege will be shamed if say anything outside the syllabus. Lipstick, bikini, GRWM, OOTD, make-up haul et al." she wrote.

Richa then highlighted Dia's environmental work and said that people trolling her could at least do a basic search before making accusations.

"Just FYI, @deespeak is involved with a bamboo paper company, means no trees are cut to manufacture paper, and WITH-OUT, a plastic recycling start up that makes very cool sunglasses. She's also produced a lovely short on the climate, it screens at PardaFaash, Mumbai, tomorrow 3.07.26. Check these things out, because if you can bully a 5 year old, you can also run a basic google search na," Richa added.

Richa Chadha Says Dia Mirza Does Not Own A Jaguar

Richa also dismissed the claim that Dia owns a Jaguar. She said that she has only seen Dia use electric cars and added that the actor has personally inspired her through her environmental gestures.

"She gifted me 1100 trees as a wedding gift and inspired me to gift trees to the Press in turn when my own baby girl was born. See photos? She doesn't own a Jaguar LOL, I have only seen 2 electric cars ever. And if she was imperfect in the past, oh please forgive her dear kind lord, show mercy!" Richa wrote.

She further said that Dia does far more for ecological restoration than many of her critics.

"Dia does more for ecological restoration in a day than YT bloggers, who could well give Perez Hilton a run for his money, or arguably you, do in a whole year. Those who want to do good in the world, do so at a great personal cost.

So please discourage them, troll them properly from that super comfy armchair.
