

'BJP Mahila Morcha to intensify outreach in Baramulla, reinforce connect with women'

HIMALAYAN MAIL NEWS
JAMMU, JULY 18

BJP Mahila Morcha J&K led by its President Adv. Neha Mahajan organized an extensive grassroots outreach programme in Village Hardibani (Kunzar) of Gulmarg constituency in Baramulla district to strengthen its connect with women, youth, and local residents while highlighting the welfare initiatives of the Narendra Modi-led government.

The programme was co-ordinated by Morcha Co-Media Incharge Mubeena Akhter. Among those present were Mahila Morcha General Secretary Poonam

Gupta, Vice President Sunita Raina, District President Fareeda, District General Secretary Shanaza, and BJP Constituency Secretary Hilal Ahmed Shah, along with local party workers and residents.

During the visit, Adv. Neha Mahajan interacted extensively with women, youth, party workers, and members of the local community. She highlighted the transformational development initiatives, welfare programmes, and women-centric policies implemented by the Central Government over the past twelve years under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

The Mahila Morcha leaders explained how various flagship schemes have empowered women, expanded opportunities for youth, and improved the socio-economic conditions of families across the country. They also emphasized the government's commitment to inclusive development, social welfare, and grassroots empowerment.

Local residents appreciated the developmental initiatives undertaken by the Central Government and expressed satisfaction with the benefits received under various welfare schemes. Women welcomed the government's continued focus on their empowerment and welfare, while the youth acknowledged the expanding opportunities in education, employment, entrepreneurship, and skill development.

The delegation also listened to public grievances and local issues raised by the residents. Assuring prompt follow-up, the leaders said that all genuine concerns would be taken up with the appropriate authorities to ensure their timely resolution.

Adv. Neha Mahajan, addressing on the occasions, said that the BJP Mahila Morcha remains committed to reaching every household with the message of development, good governance, and women's empowerment. She said that the enthusiastic response received from the people reflects their growing confidence in the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the BJP's commitment to public service.

Mahajan further emphasized that the Mahila Morcha will continue strengthening its organizational presence at the grassroots level by increasing women's participation in public life and encouraging their active role in nation-building.

DC Ramban reviews arrangements for I-Day celebrations

RAMBAN, JULY 18: Deputy Commissioner Ramban Mohammad Alyas Khan today chaired a meeting to review arrangements for celebration of the 80th Independence Day in the district.

The Deputy Commissioner directed officers concerned to ensure arrangements are in place well in advance and outlined the celebration plan. The DC also directed SDMs to ensure similar arrangements for Independence Day celebrations at the subdivision, tehsil and institutional levels in their jurisdictions.

During the meeting, SSP Ramban Arun Gupta briefed participants on security arrangements and assured foolproof security for the event. He also offered suggestions to departments for the celebrations. SSP Traffic NHW Raja Adil Hamid presented the traffic management plan to ensure smooth vehicular movement and proper parking arrangements during the event.

Earlier, ADC Varunjeet Singh Charak gave a department-wise presentation on the preparations and outlined the roles and responsibilities of different departments.

A Swachhata Abhiyan will be conducted across the district from August 1 to 14 and a plantation drive will be organised on August 14 to promote environmental awareness as part of the celebrations.

Van Mahotsav organizes 'Mission LiFE', 'Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam 3.0' by NHPC, KV

JAMMU, JULY 18

With the aim of promoting environmental conservation, sustainable development, and public participation, a 'Van Mahotsav' was organized on July 18, 2026, in the campus of Kendriya Vidyalaya No. 2, Faridabad.

The event was held jointly by NHPC Limited, Faridabad, and PM SHRI Kendriya Vidyalaya No. 2, Faridabad, under the 'Mission LiFE' and 'Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam 3.0' campaigns focused on the theme "One Child – One Sapling."

Shri Bhupender Gupta, CMD-NHPC graced the event as the Chief Guest. Also present on the occasion were Director (Projects) Shri Sanjay Kumar Singh, Director (Technical) Shri Suprakash Adhikari, Director (Finance & Personnel) Shri Mahesh Kumar Sharma, Chief Patron of the NHPC Mahila Kalyan Samiti Smt. Shikha Gupta, Samiti Patrons Smt. Soma Adhikari, Smt. Rinku Sharma and Kendriya Vidyalaya Principal Ms. Mamta Shekhar, along with other senior NHPC officials, school teachers and students.

In his address during the event, Shri Bhupender Gupta congratulated the students, teachers and the school community on the successful organization of the program. He stated that 'Mission LiFE,' launched by Hon'ble Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, inspires us to make environmental conservation an integral part of our lifestyle. He emphasized that protecting the environment is not the responsibility of any single individual or institution but a collective responsibility shared by all. He called upon everyone to plant as many saplings as possible and to pledge to conserve trees. Shri Gupta remarked that it is crucial to instill sensitivity and values regarding nature and the environment in children, as these values will shape them into responsible citizens of the future. Appreciating the creativity displayed in the artworks and presentations created by the students on the subject of the environment, he congratulated and extended his best wishes to all the students for their enthusiastic participation.

In her address, the school Principal, Ms. Mamta Shekhar, stated that the objective of this event is to inspire students to adopt practices related to environmental conservation, sensitivity towards nature, and the principles of 'Mission LiFE' (Lifestyle for Environment). She remarked that "One Child – One Sapling" is not merely a campaign but a collective pledge to ensure a clean, green and safe future for coming generations.

It is pertinent to mention that a target has been set to plant a total of 2,000 saplings on the school premises as part of the 'Van Mahotsav' (Forest Festival). In line with this, approximately 600 saplings were planted during today's event, featuring species such as Pilkhan, Ashoka, Indian Willow and Nirgundi. The remaining 1,400 saplings will be planted in a phased manner over the coming days. The event featured a variety of cultural and educational activities, including impressive performances by the school's Cub-Bulbul and Scout & Guide units, sapling plantation, songs, group singing, Bharatanatyam, short plays, group dances, instrumental music performances, student speeches on environmental themes and a prize distribution ceremony.

Koul chairs BJP organizational meetings in Akhnoor

HIMALAYAN MAIL NEWS
JAMMU, JULY 18

J&K BJP General Secretary (Organization) Ashok Koul chaired a series of organizational meetings in Akhnoor district to review the party's grassroots structure and strengthen preparations for upcoming organizational programmes. The meetings were held with the Mandal team of Maira Mandrian at MS Resort, Akhnoor, followed by interactions with Shakti Kendra Pramukhs and Booth Presidents of Gandharwan and Bharda Kalan.

BJP Akhnoor Prabhari Vinay Gupta, District President Kuldeep Raj Sharma, MLA Akhnoor Mohan Lal Bhagat, former DDCs Suresh Sharma and Sushma, and Mandal President Depesh Singh, besides senior party functionaries and booth-level workers attended the meetings.

Ashok Koul, addressing the party leaders and workers, emphasized that the BJP's greatest strength lies in its disciplined organizational structure and committed grassroots cadre. He said that every booth worker serves as the face of the party and plays a decisive role in taking the policies, programmes, and welfare initiatives of the Narendra Modi-led government to every household.

Koul asked the cadre to remain in constant touch with the public, identify local is-ssues, and ensure that the benefits of Central Government schemes reach every eligible beneficiary. He stressed that organizational expansion, effective communication, and continuous public outreach are essential for further strengthening the party across Jammu and Kashmir.

He also called upon the workers to remain active throughout the year and work with dedication to reinforce the BJP's ideology of nationalism, good governance, and development.

Vinay Gupta said that the organizational meetings provide valuable direction to the party cadre and help strengthen coordination between different levels of the organization.

He urged the workers to maintain regular contact with the public and actively participate in all organizational activities.

Kuldeep Raj Sharma said that a strong booth structure is the foundation of every electoral success. He appreciated the dedication of party workers in Akhnoor and appealed to them to further intensify organizational activities at the grassroots level.

Mohan Lal Bhagat said that the BJP government has transformed the development landscape of Jammu and Kashmir through transparent governance and people-centric policies. He urged the workers to effectively communicate these achievements among the masses and continue serving the people with commitment.

Suresh Sharma appreciated the enthusiasm of the party workers and said that continuous interaction with booth-level teams enhances organizational efficiency and ensures better public engagement. He called upon every worker to remain united and work collectively to further strengthen the BJP at the grassroots.
