

Tom Cruise And Katie Holmes' Daughter Suri Drops Father's Last Name, Registers As Suri Noelle

Hollywood action icon Tom Cruise and actress Katie Holmes' daughter Suri has legally dropped her father's last name.

The 20-year-old legally changed her last name to Noelle from Cruise, according to the voter registration records obtained people.com. Suri currently attends Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and registered to vote in Allegheny County, Pennsylvania during her freshman year in October 2024. Her registration reads Suri Noelle. Noelle is also Holmes' middle name. Cruise and Holmes welcomed Suri in April 2006, married in November 2006, and divorced in 2012.

Months before Suri registered to vote as Suri Noelle, she used the name for her high school graduation in June 2024. That same weekend, Cruise was seen attending Taylor Swift's Eras tour at London's Wembley Stadium. Two months later, in celebration of her daughter's accomplishment, Holmes made rare comments about Suri while speaking to Town & Country. "I'm proud of my daughter. Of course, I will miss the close proximity, but I'm really proud of her and I'm happy," she said. "I remember being this age, this time of beginnings. It's exciting to learn about yourself, and I loved that time, so it makes me happy to think about it like that."

Then in December 2024, Holmes publicly addressed comments about Suri's relationship with Cruise, denying the reports that she inherited a trust fund from her father.

On the work front, Cruise is gearing up for the release of Digger Tom Cruise to star as 'most powerful man in the world' in 2026 film 'Digger' by Alejandro González Inarritu. The film is to release on October 2, 2026. It will have the superstar play the 'most powerful man in the world'. The actor stars as Digger Rockwell. While the exact plot is still under wraps, Warner Bros. provided a logline describing Cruise's character as "the most powerful man in the world" who "embarks on a frantic mission to prove that he is humanity's savior before the disaster he's unleashed destroys everything."

The cast also includes Sandra Hüller, John Goodman, Michael Stuhlbarg, Jesse Plemons, Sophie Wilde, Riz Ahmed and Emma D'Arcy. "Digger" is Cruise's first film since signing a deal to develop and produce theatrical films with Warner Bros. Meanwhile, Holmes was recently seen in Happy Hours, a romantic dramedy film written and directed by Holmes. It stars Holmes, Joshua Jackson, Mary-Louise Parker, Joe Tippett, and Constance Wu. The film premiered at the Tribeca Festival on June 6, 2026.

Mom-To-Be Samantha Ruth Prabhu Flaunts Baby Bump In New Video, Fans Say 'She's Back With Her Glow'

Samantha Ruth Prabhu and filmmaker Raj Nidimoru are preparing to embrace a new chapter in their lives as they get ready to welcome their first child together. Ever since the couple confirmed the pregnancy at an event, fans have been closely following every update, with social media buzzing over Samantha's radiant appearance. Most recently, the actress was spotted in Mumbai, where videos of her quickly made their way online.

Dressed in a comfortable outfit, Samantha flaunted her baby bump, and her mom-to-be glow soon became the talking point among fans, who flooded the comments section with congratulatory messages and warm wishes for the parents-to-be. She made a stylish appearance in Mumbai recently, where she was photographed by the paparazzi. Samantha stepped out in a black jumpsuit paired with a delicate lace cape, keeping her look elegant yet understated. Surrounded by members of her team, Samantha paused to smile for the cameras before making her way to her car. Wearing her hair down and opting for minimal makeup, she looked radiant as she proudly showed off her baby bump, with the videos quickly winning over fans online.

Soon after the video surfaced online, her fans were all hearts. One fan commented, "Awww @samantharuthprabhuoff I am sending you my best wishes for a healthy pregnancy and a safe delivery. May you and your baby be blessed with good health and happiness." Another fan wrote, "So happy for you dear. Take care of ur health." One of the comments also read,

"Ohhhh she is backkkkkk with glowwww."

Samantha confirmed her pregnancy shortly after the release of Maa Inti Bangaaram, directed by Nandini Reddy, in June. During the film's success celebrations, the actor appeared in a casual T-shirt and jeans, with her baby bump visible in photographs and videos from the event. She later spoke to the media about embracing motherhood and revealed that she would soon be taking maternity leave.

The announcement came after Samantha had previously stepped away from work to focus on her recovery following her diagnosis with myositis.

When your body is tea, you got to flaunt it in the best way! Disha poses by the ocean in a bright yellow bikini with a sarong and waist chain.

Umrao Jaan Has Never Left Me': Rekha On Iconic Film's Screening And Special Tribute At IFFM

Rekha, one of Indian cinema's most timeless icons, is all set to attend the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM) as Guest of Honour, to hoist the Indian flag in Melbourne, and to be presented with the prestigious Excellence in Cinema Award. The festival will have a special screening of the legendary actress' iconic film Umrao Jaan.

The special screening is set to celebrate Rekha's unparalleled body of work and extraordinary contribution to Indian cinema, and she herself will be present at the event.

Speaking about this heartfelt tribute, Rekha said, "Umrao Jaan has never left me. She lives in my memories, in my silences, and in the hearts of those who have embraced her with a lot of love over the years. To revisit that journey and see the film being celebrated on a global stage is both humbling and moving."

She further continued and added, "Cinema has been my life's greatest blessing, and to be honoured with the Excellence in Cinema Award at IFFM 2026 is special. I accept this honour with immense gratitude, not only as a recognition of my own journey, but also as a tribute to the filmmakers, writers, musicians, and countless collaborators who have enriched my life and shaped my work."

One of Indian cinema's most iconic and celebrated actors, Rekha, will attend the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM) 2026 as its Guest of Honour, marking another landmark moment in the festival's celebration of Indian cinema and culture on the global stage.

The timeless masterpiece Umrao Jaan, directed by Muzaffar Ali, is one of the defining films of her illustrious career and features a performance that remains among the finest in Indian cinema. The festival will also honour Rekha with the prestigious Excellence in Cinema Award, celebrating her extraordinary contribution to Indian cinema.

With a body of work that has inspired generations and performances that have become part of India's cinematic legacy, Rekha remains one of the country's most celebrated and influential artists. As part of the festival's cherished Independence Day tradition, Rekha will hoist the Indian National Flag in Melbourne on August 15.

Virat Kohli-Anushka Sharma Mumbai Home: Power Couple Buys Rs 18.29 Crore Sea-Facing Apartment In Versova

Anushka Sharma and Virat Kohli have made another high-value real estate investment, this time picking up a sea-facing apartment in Mumbai's Versova for Rs 18.29 crore. The purchase, made in the premium Godrej Skyshore project, further expands the couple's growing portfolio of luxury homes across India.

Property registration documents accessed by Zapkey show that the couple's new home has a carpet area of 2,644 square feet and is located on one of the higher floors of the building in Andheri West. The apartment comes with three dedicated parking spaces and an additional exclusive area measuring 316 square feet. The transaction works out to roughly Rs 69,159 per square foot.

The project has already attracted celebrity buyers. According to registration data accessed by Liases Foras, actor Tabu had earlier purchased a 2,153-square-foot apartment in the same building for Rs 10 crore.

Virat and Anushka's growing property portfolio The Versova apartment joins a string of premium properties owned by Anushka and Virat. Kohli owns a 10,000-square-foot residence in Gurugram's DLF Phase 1, reportedly valued at around Rs 80 crore, complete with a private pool and gym.

The couple has also invested in Alibaug. They own more than five acres of land in Zirad village near Awas Beach, bought for about Rs 37.86 crore. Earlier, in 2022, they purchased another eight-acre property in the same area for around Rs 19 crore and later built a luxury villa with a temperature-controlled swimming pool, jacuzzi, landscaped garden, staff quarters and other premium amenities.

Recent visit to Premanand Maharaj's ashram

The property purchase comes days after Anushka Sharma and Virat Kohli visited Premanand Maharaj's new ashram in Vrindavan. The couple was seen walking barefoot in the rain while seeking the spiritual leader's blessings. According to a source as reported in Etimes, it was their eighth meeting with Premanand Maharaj since January 2023.