

Devyani announces Rs 15 lakh allocates for Nagrota Main Bazaar

HIMALAYAN MAIL NEWS
JAMMU, AUG 03

Demonstrating her commitment towards inclusive development and responsive governance, Devyani Rana today undertook an extensive tour of the Nagrota Main Market in the Nagrota Assembly Constituency to inspect various ongoing and completed development works.

Responding immediately to the genuine demands raised by the public, Devyani Rana announced an on-the-spot allocation of ?15 lakh for various development works, including the covering of the main nallah at Devender Singh Rana Chowk at Nagrota Bazaar and Till Post a long-pending public demand aimed at improving sanitation, safety, and the overall aesthetics of the market area. Several other on-the-spot decisions were taken during the visit, with directions issued to the concerned departments for the immediate redressal of public issues. Officials were instructed to act without delay and ensure that all identified works are completed within the stipulated timeframe.

In another significant initiative, two high-mast flood lights at Devender Singh Rana Chowk at Nagrota Bazaar were made functional on the spot with newly purchased lights following her intervention, restoring proper illumination in the busy market area and enhancing the safety and convenience of residents, traders, and commuters.

The prompt action, people-centric approach, and swift decision-making displayed during the visit were widely appreciated by the local residents, traders, and representatives of civil society. They lauded Devyani Rana's proactive leadership and her commitment to addressing public concerns without delay.

She was accompanied by officers from various departments, who were directed to ensure quality execution and timely completion of all public works. During the visit, Devyani Rana inspected the newly constructed Tehsil Office in the presence of Tehsildar Nagrota Mr. Sumit Kohli and Block Development Office (BDO) in the presence of BDO Nagrota Mr Azhar Khan at Nagrota and reviewed the infrastructure and facilities being provided to the public.

She instructed the concerned officers to ensure that these institutions function efficiently and deliver prompt, transparent, and citizen-friendly services. She was accompanied by officers from various departments including AEE PWD (R&B), Nagrota, Mr. Wasim Ahmed, JE PWD (R&B), Nagrota Mr. Anjum Chowdhary, JE REW Mrs. Chetana, who were directed to ensure quality execution and timely completion of all public works.

Koul meets public delegations at Srinagar

SRINAGAR, AUG 03: J&K BJP General Secretary (Organization) Ashok Koul met several public delegations at the party office, J-53, Jawahar Nagar, Srinagar, and held detailed discussions on a wide range of public issues, local concerns, and developmental matters affecting different areas of Kashmir.

J&K BJP State Secretary Arif Raja, BJP Spokesperson Altaf Thakur, and BJP All Cells Co-Convener Bilal Parry were also present during the interactions. Delegations from different districts and constituencies apprised the BJP leadership of issues related to civic amenities, road connectivity, drinking water supply, electricity, healthcare, education, employment, and other region-specific concerns. They also highlighted various developmental requirements and sought the party's intervention for the timely resolution of issues affecting the daily lives of the people.

Ashok Koul patiently heard every delegation and assured them that each genuine concern would be taken up with the appropriate government authorities for prompt redressal. He emphasized that the BJP remains committed to maintaining close contact with the people and ensuring that public grievances are addressed effectively through continuous engagement.

BJP General Secy Billawaria emphasis for strengthening party at booth level

JAMMU, AUG 03

Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) Jammu & Kashmir General Secretary Baldev Singh Billawaria today asserted that the BJP's greatest strength lies in its dedicated and disciplined cadre, emphasising that strengthening the organisation at the booth level remains the party's foremost priority.

The meeting was attended by BJP District President Updesh Andotra, Hiranagar MLA Vijay Sharma, senior party leaders, Mandal office bearers and party activists.

Addressing an organisational meeting of Koota Mandal under BJP District Kathua, Billawaria said that strong booth committees are the foundation of the party's sustained success and the enduring trust reposed in it by the people. He urged party workers to continue working with dedication, discipline and commitment to further strengthen the organisation at the grassroots.

A detailed review of organisational activities was conducted during the meeting, with extensive discussions on upcoming organisational programmes, public outreach initiatives and strategies for expanding the party's organisational network. Billawaria described every karyakarta as the backbone of the BJP and called upon workers to actively take the Central Government's welfare schemes and the party's policies to every household. He announced that similar organisational meetings would be held in a phased manner across all Mandals of the district to further strengthen the organisation and ensure effective communication of the party's policies, strategies and future programmes to every worker.

Highlighting the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Billawaria said the BJP is steadfastly working towards the vision of nation-building and inclusive development. He urged party workers to strengthen booth committees, intensify public outreach campaigns and enhance organisational coordination to ensure the successful implementation of forthcoming party programmes and campaigns.

Speaking on the occasion, Hiranagar MLA Vijay Sharma said that it is the responsibility of every BJP worker to ensure that the benefits of the government's welfare schemes reach the last person in society. He stressed the need to further strengthen booth-level public outreach and remain responsive to the concerns of the people.

BJP District President Updesh Andotra urged party workers to actively participate in all organisational programmes and campaigns with complete dedication and commitment, reaffirming the party's resolve to further strengthen its organisational structure at every level.

The programme was organized under the patronage of the Principal, Prof. (Dr.) Romesh Kumar Gupta. The Senior Wing (SW) NCC Unit functioned under the supervision of 8 J&K Girls Battalion, NCC, Jammu, guided by Lt (Dr.) Shafia Saleem, Associate NCC Officer (ANO), while the Senior Division (SD) NCC Unit functioned under the supervision of 2 J&K Battalion, NCC, Jammu, guided by Lt (Dr.) Devinder Kumar Sharma. The competitions witnessed enthusiastic participation from NCC cadets of both the Senior Wing (SW) and Senior Division

(SD), who showcased exceptional patriotism, confidence, coordination, and musical talent through their soulful renditions of the National Anthem. The event reflected the spirit of national unity, discipline, and devotion to the nation while reinforcing the core values of the National Cadet Corps. Cadet Swastika Sharma clinched the First Prize in the Solo National Anthem Competition, with Cadet Arya Sharma securing the Second Prize. In the Group category, the Senior Division (SD) team comprising

Cadet Varun Sharma, Cadet Harveet Singh, Cadet Arya Sharma, and Cadet Anand Saini earned the First Prize, while the Senior Wing (SW) team of Cadet Swastika Sharma, Cadet Adity Verma, Cadet Priyanka Devi, and Cadet Niharika Sharma took home the Second Prize. The competitions were judged by Prof. Dr. Rajesh Sharma, Head of the Department of Mathematics, and Prof. Dr. Revika Arora, Department of Chemistry, who appreciated the remarkable performances and patriotic zeal displayed by the participating cadets. Addressing the participants, Principal Prof. (Dr.) Romesh Kumar Gupta appreciated the dedicated efforts of both NCC units in successfully organizing the competitions. He congratulated the winners and encouraged all cadets to continue upholding the ideals of patriotism, discipline, unity, and selfless service to society. Lt (Dr.) Shafia Saleem and Lt (Dr.) Devinder Kumar Sharma lauded the enthusiasm, dedication, and commendable performances of the cadets. They emphasized that such patriotic activities play a significant role in fostering national integration and nurturing responsible, disciplined, and socially conscious citizens. The Independence Day Celebration Programme at GGM Science College will continue with a series of patriotic and nation-building activities until 15th August 2026, culminating in the Independence Day celebrations with the active participation of students, faculty members, and NCC cadets.
